Kashmir Fighting Continues; U.S. Sets Pakistan Airlift

PRESIDENT'S DESK TAKEN OVER

While President Lyndon B. Johnson presented National Aeronautics and Space Administration Exception Service medal today to Gemini 5 astronauts L. Gordon Cooper Jr. and Charles Conrad Jr., the Chief Executive's desk was taken over by the four Cooper youngsters. They squirmed and clowned silently as their parents stood (left) in the White House office and the President also presented a medal to Dr. Charles Berry, space medicine director at the space center. The boys (from left) are Peter, 10; Andy, 6; Chris, 4 and Tommy, 8, who took over Johnson's chair.

HUB, FAIRFAX HIT FREEWAY PLANS

Residents Protest Road To Coast Could Destroy Their Cities, Give No Benefits

By FRANK FARRARA

San Anselmo and Fairfax residents contended last night that a proposed east-west freeway through their cities would result in "destruction and disruption."

They challenged the route location before the county planning commission's committee on the West Marin Master Plan at the Civic Center.

The plan shows the major east-west freeway (Route 17) extending from San Rafael to Point Reyes Station cutting through San Rafael, San Anselmo and Fairfax to White's Hill, then through the San Geronimo Valley to Nicasio Valley and Nicasio Lake, where it would join with a proposed extension of Route 37.

Mrs. John F. West of San Anselmo Homes-Assn. said that a fully-developed freeway through San Anselmo "would level a number of homes, and would cut the community in half. Put it where you don't have homes, schools and businesses."

Martin Roth, a member of the Fairfax Planning Commission, said, "I can't see the county tearing its heart out to grasp state money."

Roth asked that more details be made available for study before any decisions are made. "Then we could have a decent discussion of alternatives," he said.

International Effort Fails To Gain Truce

COMBINED AP & UPI

India claimed a victory today in the battle for Sailkot, a major military base in West Pakistan. But aerial dogfights broke out near Calcutta and officials there said Indian and Pakistani artillery dueled across the border of India and East Pakistan.

Peace efforts appeared to be faltering in New Delhi where Secretary General Thant was trying to win a cease-fire. After a 45-minute talk with Defense Minister Y. B Chavan he postponed his scheduled departure for New York in an indication the talks had hit a snag. The government-owned all-India radio denied reports that had aimed for a cease-fire by today.

KREMLIN PLEA

Soviet Communist party leader Leonid Brezhnev called again for peace between India and Pakistan at a Kremlin reception today and it was apparent India was coming under strong pressure from Russia, the U.N., the United States and Britain to end the fighting.

Foreign Minister Simon Kapwepwe of Zambia, a member of the British Commonwealth, flew into London today, touching off diplomatic speculation that plans were being stepped up for possible Commonwealth intervention in Kashmir although Prime Minister Harold Wilson does not want to interfere in Thant's work.

INDIAN CLAIMS

All-India radio reported this morning, "Our forces in the Jammu-Sialkot area have achieved their objectives and are now consolidating their gains. These have been won at a small cost to us, but the enemy has sustained heavy losses."

Early communiques from Pakistan ignored the Sialkot fighting but reported new air raids against Indian air bases. One of these was against the Barrackpore air base just north of Calcutta.

BULLETS TRADED

No real fighting was reported in East Pakistan, more than 1,000 miles across India from West Pakistan, but Calcutta reports said Indian and Pakistani guns exchanged fire all day yesterday at the Indian Village of Citaldah on the border of East Pakistan and north Bengal.

Karachi reported a series of "indiscriminate" Indian air attacks on Pakistani cities.

In Washington, the State Department announced that the Air Force will airlift some 1,100 to 1,300 Americans, mainly women and children, from West and East Pakistan today.

At least six C130 transports wil fly in from Tehran, Iran.

A few hours later about eight C-1-30 transports from Bangkok, Thailand, and Clark Air Force Base near Manila in the Philippines will begin the evacuation of 500 to 600 Americans from the Dacca region of East Pakistan. These Americans will be flown to Manila.

U.S. authorities said that most of the evacuees would be women and children who are the dependents of U.S. government officials and workers in Pakistan.

There will also be some American officials who are classified as nonessential.

'Embarrassed' Aide Cuts List Of Betsy Dead

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — President Johnson pumped men, money and materials into hurricane-torn Louisiana today as the New Orleans coroner slashed his estimate of the probable death toll.

The White House dispatched $2 million as a token start toward helping rejuvenate the tragedy-stricken state, where 52 were known dead.

POVERTY MONEY

Plans were afoot to convert Louisiana's antipoverty program into a war on Hurricane Betsy. A million dollars was earmarked to put the Youth Corps to work cleaning up the debris.

Sixty freight carloads of surplus foods were sent by the Department of Agriculture.

The flood tides and fierce winds of Hurricane Betsy inflicted the greatest destruction on Louisiana in the state's storm-scared history.

Coroner Nicholas Chetta, confessing "an embarrassing situation," told newsmen late last night that he had been misled by poor communications into preparing for several hundred dead from downriver Plaquemines Parish.

TELLS OF RUMORS

Chetta said he finally reached the isolated parish by telephone Plaquemines authorities tell him the true story: only 20 — not 200 to 250 — bodies would be sent to New Orleans today for the coroner's care.

Chetta said he did not know how the rumors started about 200 to 250 deaths. "This was probably promulgated by an unofficial official," the official said. Chetta said the information was relayed to him by amateur radio operators.

Ships, planes and divers searched a stretch of the Mississippi River at Baton Rouge, 85 miles upstream, for a sunken barge loaded with deadly chlorine.

The barge, with four tanks of the poisonous liquid welded to its hull, disappeared with scores of others when Betsy swept past Louisiana's capital city.

The cash damage toll from the destructive storm remains a matter of guesswork. Estimates range upward to a billion dollars.

Army Reveals Secret Base In Viet Uplands

SAIGON (UPI)—The U.S. military command disclosed today that the First Cavalry Division, a 20,000-man air mobile unit, will play a key role against Communist guerrillas deep in South Viet Nam's central highlands.

The announcement ended weeks of secrecy surrounding the assignment of the powerful American assault force.

Details were made public today only after the bulk of the division's men and helicopters had moved to their base 50 miles inland from the seaport at Qui Nhon where they landed yesterday and Sunday.

The base is located in the midst of Communist controlled jungles and mountains on Highway 19. It is about two miles northwest of An Khe on the strategic highway which runs from Qui Nhon on the South China Sea to the Vietnamese Army's II Corps headquarters at Pleiku and thence to the border with Cambodia.

The maximum security base was literally hacked out by hand from the jungle by an advanced party of 1,000 officers and men armed with axe and shovel.

The "First Cav" is the first U.S. division to establish its base in the interior of South Viet Nam, away from the protection of a coastal base.

A large helioport and the base's tent city lie in a valley formed by the Song Ba River surrounded by mountains and dense jungle, broken occasionally with a clearing hacked out by tribal Montagnards.

At first, supplies came in by air. Then the U.S. Army's 101st Airborne Brigade cleared Highway 19 and supplies and equipment began pouring in at the rate of 500 tons a day.

Variable checkpoints and constant radio communication with the truck convoys kept the road open.

The clearing job was done by hand rather than bulldozer to preserve the sod and prevent dust storms.

Maj. Charles L. Silver of Williamsburg, Ky., the division's public information officer, briefed newsmen on the operation.

"I can truthfully say every one hacked his way on the course because we dubbed it operation golf course after some people got the mistaken idea we were building one."

The 30-square-mile area comprising the new base was purchased by the United States from the South Vietnamese government. A sign along the cattle fencing surrounding the base reads:

"U.S. government property. Trespassers will be prosecuted."

Synanon Acts Over Effigy Held Childish

Marin County Supervisor Thomas T. Storer today said Synanon representatives have acted "childishly" toward the residents of Marshall.

Soon after an effigy was left at Synanon House at Marshall, representatives of the drug addict treatment center "rushed" onto a Bay Area television station waving their county use permit and saying "see, we are perfectly legal," Storer declared.

He said Synanon people accused the residents of Marshall of being bigots and called the community "a second Selma."

There is no proof that anyone from Marshall placed the dummy on the Synanon property, Storer pointed out.

He called on Synanon to make some effort to get along with Marshall residents.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, however, said the issue was "a too sided coin." He thought a few Marshall residents had also acted childishly.

The board last week by 4-0 vote, with Supervisor William A. Gnoss abstaining, approved the use permit for Synanon. Storer then spoke strongly in favor of Synanon and the use permit.

Minimum Milk Price Unchanged

SACRAMENTO (AP)—There will be no changes in minimum consumer milk prices, State Director of Agriculture Charles Paul said today.

Paul's announcement came in the wake of findings made by the department following a series of public hearings in August.

ROADSIDE SIGN BARELY THE KIND THEY WANT

POMFRET, Conn. (UPI)—Bernard L. Patenaude thought he had a winner when he put out a roadside sign advising motorists:

"Slow Down. Nudists Cross-Ahead."

State police think the sign is a loser.

Patenaude put up the sign four years ago. He thought it would slow the speed of traffic, and attract some people to his store.

Motorists slowed on route 169 all right, looking for sun worshippers.

Then state police said the sign was too close to the road. Besides, they said, warning motorists was a job for the authorities.

So Patenaude moved the sign back from the road and added "Look out for Flying Fish" to the reverse side.

This week authorities ordered him to appear in Danielson Circuit Court Sept. 27.

Rocket Expert Says U.S. Keeping Moon Timetable

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Wernher von Braun told an international space congress today the United States should achieve its goal of landing a man on the moon before 1970.

The German-born rocket expert, now director of the Marshall Space Flight Center at Huntsville, Ala., reported on the U.S. Apollo program at the 16th International Astronautical Congress in Athens being attended by 1,000 space experts.

Von Braun said the Apollo program "has now passed the half-way point and is moving forward at full momentum."

The $20-billion program was started in 1961. Von Braun said the first Saturn carrying an unmanned Apollo craft into an orbit around the earth would be launched in 1967 and the first manned Apollo launching for earth orbit is scheduled for 1968.

Nine Aquanauts Leave Chamber

LA JOLLA (UPI)—Nine tired-looking aquanauts today emerged from a decompression chamber after spending more than two weeks submerged 205 feet below the ocean's surface in Sealab 2.

The nine came up to the mother ship Berkone anchored above the Sealab 2 on Sunday and went directly to the chamber. Today they met reporters aboard the Berkone.

Cigar Smoker, Friend Suspects In Purse Theft

Two men, one smoking a cigar, asked directions at the home of Mrs. Pauline Pound, 365 Alameda Del Prado, Loma Verde, today, and then left. Minutes later Mrs. Pound noticed that her purse, with $40 in cash, all her keys and credit cards, was missing.

Mrs. Pound told sheriff's officers she was in her back yard about 10 a.m. when her dogs started barking. She went to investigate and found the two men, described as slender, medium height, swarthy "Latin" types, standing near the front door. She directed them to Alameda de la Loma and they left.

Returning to the house, she smelled cigar smoke inside the house.

Mayor Puts Lid On Meetings

A weary Mayor Frank L. Lawrence told the Fairfax City Council last night that no new business will be brought up at future meetings after 11 p.m.

Speaking before the council meeting was adjourned last night at 11:35, the mayor told the council:

"I'm getting to be an old man now and these late meetings make it too hard for me to get up in the morning. In the future, even if it means continuing the meeting, we're going to have to adjourn earlier."

Lawrence is 62.

Storm Threatens Okinawa Havoc

MANILA (UPI) — Powerful Typhoon Trix, the biggest of the season, picked up strength today as it swirled in the Pacific toward Okinawa.

In a typhoon bulletin the Manila Weather Bureau said Trix had increased its peak winds from 116 to 150 miles per hour.

It said the typhoon was estimated to be 316 miles east-northeast of the extreme northern Philippines.

Kent Resigning To Help Brown

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Roger Kent today announced he will resign his post this weekend as Democratic state chairman to become Northern California chairman for the re-election of Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Kent, 59, who has served as Democratic state chairman or Northern California state chairman for 11 years, will formally resign during a conference of the Democratic State Committee executives Saturday and Sunday at the Hilton Inn at San Francisco International Airport.

A spokesman at Democratic headquarters here today said Robert Coate, Democratic treasurer, was considered a leading possibility for replacing Kent.

X-15 Flight

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE (UPI)—The X-15 rocket plane zoomed to a maximum speed of 3,545 miles an hour and altitude of 240,000 feet today during a 10-minute test flight.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Norwegians Oust Socialists

OSLO, Norway (AP)—After 30 years of socialism, the Norwegians have voted out their government and decided to try something new.

According to unofficial figures after yesterday's general election they have given a four-party coalition a surprising majority of 10 in the 150-member Storting (Parliament) for the next four years.

The Socialists were defeated by an upsurge of right and left-wing sentiment among Norway's 2.4 million voters.

The Norwegians will have to wait a few weeks before they know who will replace Premier Einar Gerhardsen, 68.

The coalition named no leader during the campaign and spokesmen said no government will be formed until after the Storting reconvenes Oct. 1.

The vote meant no change in foreign policy—membership in the Atlantic Alliance and stout support for the United Nations.

Cal Sit-In Judge Ends Vacation

BERKELEY (AP)—Judge Rupert Crittenden, who presided over the mass trial of University of California sit-in demonstrators, has ended a five-week vacation and continues the sentencing of convicted defendants.

He fined three of the young demonstrators $150 apiece yesterday and gave each 10-day suspended jail sentences and one-year probations. They were convicted of trespassing and resisting arrest.

George C. Seay of Boston was fined $50 for trespassing. He was one of the few not additionally convicted of resisting arrest.

Crittenden was told that about 90 students had studied or traveled in Europe and Asia this summer and would appear in court for sentencing within two weeks. No warrants were issued for them because of their absence.

Girl Describes Murder Spree

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP) — Sixteen-year-old Dixie Radcliff says she followed her boy friend, an admitted killer of four, because "I loved him too much to leave him."

Miss Radcliff, daughter of an Amesville, Ohio, minister, said she couldn't bear to watch as the men were killed.

Authorities released yesterday the girl's statement on how two New Hampshire men who befriended her and Donald Melvin Boggs were slain.

She said Robert Willis, 23, and Halvor Johnson, 28, both of Newport, N.H., gave them a lift in their car after she and Boggs abandoned a pickup in Oklahoma.

The girl, who was charged with murder in the two deaths, disclosed the beating of a man in Ohio and the theft of two cars before the fatal beating of H. N. Flory, of San Antonio, Tex., which authorities say Boggs has admitted.

The Radcliff girl was remanded to superior court after a hearing in juvenile court. Two murder charges were filed.

Art Student Faces Strangling Charge

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A grand jury returned a murder indictment yesterday against an art student in the slaying of a blonde classmate from Finland.

Enni Metsola, 29, described as a talented student, was found strangled with a necktie Sept. 3. Arthur Shields, 24, turned himself in and police said he admitted the killing.

LIKE A FILM PLOT—In past decades (above) dapper Tom Conway, now 60, played in 283 Hollywood films and starred on screen in the "Falcon" series and on radio as "The Saint," earning nearly a million dollars. He is the brother of actor George Sanders, but the two have drifted apart in recent years. Yesterday, Conway (below) was found living in a $2-a-day hotel, still neatly groomed but jobless for two years. Cataracts and swindlers caused "the roof to cave in," he told reporters. His famous brother was unaware of the problem, he said. (UPI Telephotos)

Woman Charged For Stowaway

PORT HUENEME (AP) — A woman stowaway aboard an Orient-bound military sea transport ship turned herself in to the captain, was taken back to port and arrested, the FBI reported.

Mrs. Joan Dorothy McMahon, 33, of Long Beach, Calif., turned herself in about noon yesterday to the captain of the Thompson Lykes a few hours after it left port at Long Beach, the FBI said.

Mrs. McMahon was charged with being a stowaway and taken to Ventura County Jail.

The FBI did not elaborate on how the woman allegedly stowed away or why.

California's first gold discovery was made in 1842.

Final Session Of Ecumenical Council Opens

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI today opened the Vatican Ecumenical Council's final session, telling the Roman Catholic bishops he is going to the United Nations in New York to plead for peace "which in these days is being wounded and is bleeding."

The pontiff spoke at a ceremony in St. Peter's Basilica before nearly 2,500 of his bishops gathered from around the world for the fourth and concluding council session.

"May peace among men triumph — that peace, which in these days is being wounded and is bleeding between peoples so sorely in need of peace," said the Pope.

He said he was going before the U.N. General Assembly on Oct. 4 "to bring with respectful homage to the represenattives of the nations assembled there a message of peace."

As for the council itself, where conservative and progressive prelates are expected to clash over major topics like religious liberty and modern world problems, the Pope said: "We have not touched (in the speech) on any of the themes which will be submitted to the examination of this assembly.

"Our silence has been deliberate. It is to be interpreted as a sign of our unwillingness to compromise, by any words of ours, your freedom of opinion with regard to the matters to be presented to you."

The Pope also announced the establishment of a special synod of bishops which he will convene for consultation and collaboration when he sees fit.

Pope Paul said the Episcopal Synod would be composed largely of bishops from the various Episcopal conferences around the world.

Approximately 5,000 persons died in the hurricane and tidal wave which hit Galveston, Tex., on Sept. 8, 1900.

CRABBY TIME FOR FLORIDA MOTORISTS

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—It's migration time for land crabs and hundreds of motorists have found it out—through punctured tires.

Thousands of the ugly crabs, which live mainly on land and breed in the sea, crawled on roads near the ocean yesterday, proving a menace to motorists.

A service station owner reported servicing 20 cars with crab claws stuck in tire treads. Another said a crab can sink his claw through a new three-eighths inch tread.

"An old, worn-down tread is child's play for a crab," a service station manager said.

Train Destroys East Bay News Official's Auto

OAKLAND (AP) — Newspaper publisher Leo J. Owens was injured in a car-train collision.

Police said the board chairman of Owens Publications, Inc. was headed for luncheon yesterday when his Rolls Royce and a Southern Pacific train collided at First and Broadway, Oakland.

Merritt Hospital said he suffered a minor s houlder injury and a cut left eyebrow.

His car was demolished.

Owens, 76, owns the Richmond Independent, the Concord Transcript, the Berkeley Gazzette and the Whittier News. All are published daily in California.

He also has interests in Northwest Publications, owners of the San Jose Mercury and the San Jose News, the St. Paul, Minn. Dispatch and St. Paul Pioneer Press, and the Duluth, Minn. News Tribune and Duluth Herald.

Senate Plans Pins For 10 Years Service

WASHINGTON (AP)—If the Senate gets pinned, can the House be far behind?

In more or less solemn ceremony next winter, Senate members and aides with 10 years' service are due to get the first batch of lapel pins authorized under a newly passed resolution.

"I wouldn't be surprised if the House went ahead and had some sort of pin of its own," said staff director Gordon F. Harrison of the Senate Rules Committee, who qualifies for a pin himself. "I'd be somewhat surprised if they didn't, now that we've done this."

So far, there's no lapel pin legislation in the works on the House side of the Capitol.

Forty-six senators will qualify next year for the longevity emblems. So far, nobody knows just how many other people on the Senate pay roll will get pins, too.

The emblems they'll get haven't been selected yet.

Harrison pointed out that the Senate pins will be for Senate service only.

Since the Senate pins have not been selected and the number that will be presented is not known, the price tag is undetermined. The Senate contingency fund will pay the bills.

Ambassador Due Last Contact With Peking

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—U.S. Ambassador John M. Cabot meets the Chinese Communists for his 21st and last time tomorrow — probably with the new and delicate assignment of probing Peking's threats to help Pakistan in the war with India.

Cabot, 63, returns home Sept. 24 to be replaced by Postmaster Gen. John A. Gronounski.

Johnson Signs Services Act

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed into law today legislation which he said "will do for American businessmen what the great Agricultural Extension Service has done for the American farmer."

Known as the State Technical Services Act, it provides a five-year program of matching grants to states to make scientific and technical information available to industry.

Johnson signed the bill in a ceremony attended by members of Congress, some governors and other officials.

PONTOON BRIDGE IN THE MAKING — Tony Chavez spray paints steel pontoons for Army at Diesel Engineering and Maintenance Co. in Sausalito. The contract to paint and repair the World War II pontoons is one of several in the Bay Area for restoring long-idle Army materiel to usefulness as a result of the stepped-up undeclared war in Viet Nam. (Independent-Journal photo)

Pontoons For Viet Nam Are Painted In Sausalito

Work is being done at a Sausalito shipyard on 280 steel pontoons for the Army, some of which are expected to go to Viet Nam to be used in bridges.

Diesel Engineering and Maintenance Co. at 1702 Bridgeway is doing the rebuilding, one of several companies in the Bay Area which has such a contract.

The pontoons, some of which are left over from World War II, have been stored at the Army storage and reactivation center in Rio Vista and, following rejuvenation in Sausalito, are sent back to Rio Vista for further distribution.

Del Wise, owner of the Sausalito shipyard, said the pontoons weigh about two tons, come in two sizes, 7 by 5 by 5 feet and 7 by 7 by 5 feet. They are made to be assembled without welding, just to clip together. Pontoons are painted a haze gray.

The pontoons came to Sausalito assembled as three barges but will be shipped out loaded onto a different type of barge.

Wise said he has not been informed officially where the pontoons will go.

Other work being done in Sausalito for the reactivation center, Wise said, includes an Army tug, just rejuvenated, which has been sent to a South Pacific island, and a 500-ton lighter for the Army, which will go to Rio Vista on completion.

Variance Permit Hearing Slated

The Corte Madera board of adjustments will meet tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the Town Hall, with public hearings scheduled on variance requests for six pieces of property.

Most extensive variance requests come from D. A. Beacock of 645 Tamalpais Drive, who wants to build a home at 200 Morningside Drive. He wants to build on a lot of 3,150 square feet, where a minimum of 7,500 square feet is required. He also asks waiver of the requirement for onsite parking, wants a 19-foot rear setback instead of the required 25 feet, and a south sideyard of five feet instead of the required 11 feet.

Silverthorne Says Charges Not Proven

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The former president of a defunct bank contends that charges brought against him by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. in a $32 million suit "are a long way from being proven."

Don C. Silverthorne, former president of the defunct San Francisco National Bank, said yesterday "I will fight lies and spite with fact and forthrightness." He spoke after filing of the suit, which is the second court action in the case.

The new FDIC civil suit said Silverthorne made loans on little or no security so that borrowers coud purchase stock and other items.

Also named in the suit were Bennett Properties, Suisun Properties Inc., and William S. Bennett.

Bennett is Silverthorne's cofendant in a previous federal grand jury indictment, which charges they misapplied $1.1 million in bank funds.

The FDIC suit was a counter complaint to Silverthorne's suit for $160,000 on his salary contract. He said he was to have been paid $20,000 a year for eight years following his termination as bank president.

The latest action charges that Silverthorne and Bennett took loan fees, charges for services, profits and other income rightfully belonging to the bank. It also contended he made loans to borrowers unworthy of credit.

House Completes An Odd Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House completed one of the oddest sessions in its history early today after spinning its wheels through a record-smashing 22 roll calls without taking up a single bill.

It finally called it a day 12 hours and 31 minutes after its noon opening, making it the longest session since April 8, 1964.

What happened was that Republicans and some Southern Democrats tried to use the rule book to derail the Democratic express.

The result was a twisted parliamentary track, some steamy words and repeated cries of "Point of order, Mr. Chairman — a quorum isn't present."

With each roll call requiring about 25 minutes, much of yesterday's session was devoted to the droning of names.

The previous record was 15 roll calls in one day in 1952.

Although not a single bill was passed, the big Democratic majority still delivered the freight, or at least some of it.

The House approved resolutions under the new 21-day rule to bypass the Rules Committee and bring up four bills later in the session.

The bills would raise the pay of federal employees, create a foundation on the arts and humanities, strengthen enforcement of the Equal Employment Opportunity Act and amend the Bank Holding Act.

When the witching hour came and went, however, the House decided to put aside three other similar resolutions and call it quits.

Heart of the coalition's objection was the way the resolutions had been brought to the floor in a block of seven.

It charged the procedure was an unfair slap at the Rules Committee, that it was an improper use of the 21-day rule — adopted to limit the Rules Committee's power to bottle up bills — and suggested it was mainly a fancy maneuver in the squabble over home rule for the nation's capital.

To drive home the objections, the coalition demanded that the journal of the previous meeting be read in full, rather than in the usual abbreviated form.

With most of the Republicans and Southerners making themselves scarce when points of no quorums were raised, the reading of the journal was interrupted so often it took more than six hours.

Students Trying For Form Again Inter-School Unit

Seven presidents of Marin high school student bodies are attempting to reorganize the Inter-School Relations Assn. which disbanded in 1962.

Function of the organization is to create good relations among the IRA taking over duties of the Marin Youth Council and the production of a monthly newspaper, but no specific action has been taken, according to Joe Friedman, president of the Tamalpais High School Student Body.

The association will revise its constitution but will have no power of its own and will not try to mediate feuds of any sort between schools, said Friedman. Presidents attending a meeting last Thursday were from Novato, Sir Francis Drake, San Rafael, Terra Linda, Marin Catholic, Redwood and Tamalpais high schools.

It's Still A Big Job To Locate Homes For European Refugees

GENEVA (UPI) — Twenty years after the end of World War II, Europe still has a nagging refugee problem. In fact, based on numbers, the task of resettling refugees is as important as ever.

The job of finding new homes for European refugees is that of a Geneva - based organization called the Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration (ICEM).

In cooperation with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, the United States Escapee Program and voluntary agencies, ICEM found new homes for 610,369 European refugees between 1952 and March 31 this year.

The Committee arranged the emigration of 37,160 European refugees last year and would have moved more but for lack of funds. This figure was 10,000 higher than that for 1954.

This year, the number of refugees who will require ICEM assistance to be resettled in another country is estimated at between 37,000 and 41,000.

The committee's problems have changed since 1952, primarily because new categories of persons of European origin have become refugees outside Europe. The so - called "old refugees" who were victims of World War II or those who arrived in Western Europe between 1945 and 1961, have not all been re - established. There are many physically handicapped people in this group, of whom about 1,000 should be reinstalled this year.

The "new refugees" come from Eastern Europe, and their number is steadily increasing. They are mainly people who receive "tourist visas" from their governments, leave their country without money and few clothes, and elect to stay in the West. Mostly they are what ICEM call "first generation relatives," the wives, children, mothers and fathers of people who left, or fled, earlier.

Such countries as Poland, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia permit these people to leave, arguing that if they want to go elsewhere they would be little help to the nation if forced to stay.

There are also many escapees, but they are not in the majority.

Refugee camps will not be reappearing in Western Europe if ICEM can maintain its present rate of movements. The Committee hopes to resettle 8,600 "new refugees" in 1965, about 1,000 more than last year.

"Refugees in transit" form another category of persons aided by ICEM. These are eastern Europeans who arrive legally in the west with an entry visa for some immigration country. Their number is estimated at 18,000 this year.

The "Family Reunion Scheme" is a program designed to bring together the "new refugees" with the head of the family or another close relative who left before. It is hoped to bring about some 5,000 family reunions this year.

A relatively new category of refugees are those obliged to leave either Eastern European countries, former colonies or areas because of government and other political changes. These people may possess no passport or be denied a nationality because of their ethnic origin.

Faced with the same problem as stateless refugees, these people are trying to find a new country of adoption. ICEM wants to help 2,245 of them this year.

The final group comprises refugees of European origin now living outside Europe and waiting for resettlement. They are mainly in North Africa and the Middle East, having been moved there since 1945.

The same applies to Armenians, to refugees of Greek, Italians and Maltese ethnic origin in countries bordering the Mediterranean and to some Europeans who are leaving China, where they have lived since the 1920's.

As of March 31 this year, the United States, with 191,592, had accepted the highest number of refugees of European origin among overseas nations. Second was Israel with 134,624, and third Australia, with 103,870. Canada was fourth with 85,133.

Supervisors Miffed In Fairchild Hearing

Marin County supervisors today wanted to know why they had not been notified of the continuance of a hearing on Fairchild Semiconductor's protest on back tax penalties.

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney, called into the board room, said he had agreed to the continuance at the request of Fairchild attorneys. He said this was perfectly legal, since the contending parties were only the county assessor and the firm.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen said he thought supervisors should have been notified out of courtesy, since they were to conduct the hearing. The board then formally acted to continue the hearing from today until 9:30 a.m., Sept. 28.

Enrollment Up For All Schools In Tam District

The three high schools in Tamalpais High School District all reported swollen enrollments as they opened for the school year today.

The Tamalpais District schools were the last public schools in Marin County to open.

Sir Rrancis Drake High School in San Anselmo had opening day enrollment of 1,671, reported Principal Harold Allison—almost 200 above its rated capacity of 1,475, but only 46 more than last year.

Redwood High School in Larkspur had 2,075 enrolled, but Principal Donald Kreps noted this is not quite capacity, which is 2,100.

Tamalpais High School in Mill Valley had 1,780 registered this morning—about 100 more than last year, and Principal Robert H. Prather said, "They're still coming in."

Non-Publicity Grumbles Heard

Marin County has received criticism for not advertising within the county or state for applicants for its newly created $13,200 a year post of assistant county administrator for business development.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss told fellow board members today that he had received several complaints to this effect.

Supervisord Byron W. Leydecker countered, however, that there seemed to be no lack of interest by county residents. He said he had received "at least a dozen calls" from Marin residents inquiring about the job.

Driver Injured As Cars Crash

Deletta Clark of Redwood City was treated for facial cuts and other undetermined injuries at Novato Hospital at noon today after a two-car accident on Highway 101 shortly after 11 a.m.

She was driving south in the slow lane of Highway 101 about one mile south of the Novato business district when her car hit the rear of one driven by Mrs. Sylvia Rose Bresnan, 46, of 20 Thornton Court, Novato, according to the California Highway Patrol.

The Bresnan car was knocked out of control, crossed the fast lane, the divider strip and stopped in the fast northbound lanes, according to the patrol. Mrs. Bresnan was not injured, however.

Civil Service Measures Are Gaining

By MICHAEL MOSETTIG
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — Developments in the House of Representatives this past week bolstered chances for passage of two major civil service bills.

House Speaker John McCormack said he will push for passage of a pay raise bill opposed by the Johnson administration. The White House favors a more modest Senate bill.

It would be the second raise in two years for federal workers.

The House bill, sponsored by Rep. Morris Udall, D-Ariz., would provide a 3 per cent increase this year and a formula boost of 6 to 10 per cent next year.

The Udall bill will boost civil service salaries along the line. Last year's pay raise bill was primarily for cabinet officers, top-ranking civil servants and members of Congress.

But that is one catch to this year's bill. It contains a provision for automatic cabinet, judicial and congressional pay raises in step with civil service increases.

Congress is traditionally skittish about voting itself pay raises, especially on an automatic formula.

On the other major civil service legislation, the administration endorsed a bill to liberalize moving expenses for federal employees shifted from one post to another.

The Udall pay raise bill has been tied up in the House Rules Committee, which can be bypassed only with the speaker's approval by invoking a parliamentary device to remove a bill that has been in the committee 21 days.

Pay raise backers originally thought McCormack would stick with the administration in opposing the bill. Now McCormack has promised to go along with the 21-day device, which means the bill can be brought to a House vote on Sept. 13 or 27.

The Senate, however, still has to act and it has been considering a more moderate pay hike plan.

Even though the Senate pay bill was not on the list of "must" legislation proposed for this session by Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., it is expected to pass this year.

Spokesmen on the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee think a compromise pay raise bill could then be passed by both houses before Congress adjourns.

But a compromise bill, they say, will be without the automatic pay raise formula for congressmen and top federal officials.

The travel expenses bill was endorsed at a House hearing by civil service commission chairman John Macy and deputy budget director Elmer Staats.

The travel bill, sponsored by Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenthal, D-N.Y., is not expected to pass until next year. Unless a retroactive clause is written in, employees at military bases being closed wouldn't benefit until then.

Rep. John C. Kunkel, R-Pa., advocates a retroactive clause in the travel expenses bill but concedes there is a standing tradition, and one which he generally favors, that such legislation not be made retroactive. He hopes Congress will make an exception this time.

Kentfield Civic Leader Quitting

William S. J. Van Erp has notified fellow directors of the Kentfield Civic League of his intention to resign as president.

Recording Secy. Kenneth L. Wiltz said he believed John Dakin, vice president, would become president under the league by-laws.

Van Erp was not available for comment today. His wife said he is in Holland but is resigning for "reasons of ill health."

The league's board meeting, scheduled for last night, was cancelled for lack of a quorum. Wiltz said he was not sure when the next meeting would be called.

Burglars Cart Away Empty Cash Register

Burglars broke into the Parkside Cafe in Stinson Beach, and left with an empty cash register and $38 worth of cigarettes, potato chips, candy and pies, owner Mrs. Marian C. Mikels discovered this morning.

She told sheriff's officers she usually leaves the cash drawer open so anyone can see it is empty, but last night forgot to do so. She said the register was worth $250. Officers said the cafe was entered through a kitchen window.

GEN. TRUSCOTT

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Lucian K. Truscott Jr. (Ret.), 70, a World War II combat general who insisted his officers stay up front with their troops, will be buried tomorrow in Arlington National Cemetery.

He died Sunday at Walter Reed Hospital after a brief illness.

A tough-talking Texan, Truscott was one of the war's few combat generals who was not a West Point graduate. He once taught in a country school before receiving a Reserve cavalry commission in 1917.

He took part in the invasions of North Africa and Italy during World War II.

MURL E. STANDARD

Murl E. (Jack) Standard, president of San Rafael Local 126 of the Bartenders' and Culinary Workers' Union since 1960, died early today in a local hospital after a six-month illness.

Standard operated several resturants in Marin County, including Henry's in San Rafael, the Drake Club in Fairfax, and the Highway Hut on Highway 101, before joining the Griddle restaurant in San Rafael seven years ago as a cook. He lived in the county for 18 years, most recently at 45 Woodland Avenue.

Standard was a native of Missouri. He was 57.

A widower, he is survived by sons Richard and James, both of Larkspur, a daughter, Dawn, of San Rafael, and four brothers.

Private funeral will be held tomorrow at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

RALEIGH YOUNG

Funeral for Raleigh Wilson Young, a former Mill Valley resident, will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley. Inurnment will be at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

Young, 76, a retired railroad conductor who last worked for the Pullman Co., died Sunday in hospital after a long illness. He last lived in San Francisco before being hospitalized.

Young is survived by his brother, Ernest B. Young of Dixon.

ALICE M. BONE

Mrs. Alice McCarthy Bone, a resident of Los Angeles for 24 years who moved to San Rafael three months ago, died unexpectedly yesterday.

Mrs. Bone, 60, collapsed in the kitchen of her home at 1319 Clinton Street after a cerebral hemmorhage.

She was the widow of Herbert Clifton Bone, an auto industry worker.

She is survived by a daughter Mrs. Sylvia Joyce Chipman of San Rafael; a brother, Edward McCarthy of Hamburg, N.Y., and two sisters, Mrs. Camilla Marina and Mrs. Ada Olson of New York City.

Mrs. Bone was a native of Buffalo, N.Y., and lived in Detroit also before coming to California.

Garage Burglar Gets Sewing Equipment

Mrs. Yvonne D. Dotto reported to sheriff's officers Friday that a burglar broke into the garage of her home at 618 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia, and stole $230 worth of sewing equipment and material from a workbench.

She said that 40 yards of material, two pairs of shears and 14 patterns were gone when she returned from vacation.

Japan Launches World Fair Plan

TOKYO (AP)—Japan started the wheels going today to make the 1970 World's Fair in Osaka a success.

The Japanese expect it will cost them nearly $3 billion.

The preparatory committee said the fair would run for six months from spring to autumn and more than 50 countries are expected to take part with more than 100 pavilions.

The world exposition will be the first ever to be held in Asia.

Lady Bird Honors Newspaperwomen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Mrs. Lyndon Johnson yesterday swore in Mary Gallagher, a Washington correspondent for the Cincinnati Enquirer, as president of the Women's National Press Club.

At the ceremony at the State Department, Mrs. Johnson praised newspaperwomen for their help in making the nation aware of the war on poverty and her national beautification program.

County Set To Auction Tax Delinquent Lands

Twelve small land parcels in Marin, most of them not large enough to qualify as building lots, will be up for public auction Sept. 29 at 9:30 a.m. in the planning commission chambers at the Civic Center, County Tax Collector—Treasurer Stanley J. Fontez announced today.

The auction, to be run by Joseph A. Coffrini, a deputy in the county office, will serve to put land back on the tax rolls, Fontez explained. The sales prices are not expected to raise much money for the county, he said.

The parcels are all subject to delinquent taxes. That is why the county can step in and auction them.

Of the 12, all but four are without public access. These will be offered at minimum prices from $20 to $50.

One of the largest parcels is on Oak Road, an unimproved street in the Glen addition of Larkspur. The property has a 45-foot frontage on Oak Road and is 139 feet deep. Bidding will start at $750.

Another lot, 81 by 80 feet on Chester Avenue northeast of Ridgeway in Fairfax, will be offered at a minimum starting price of $125.

Also on the sales list are a 20-by-100 foot lot on Laurel Road on Bolinas Mesa with a $100 minimum, a 50-by-149 foot lot on Montezuma Avenue near Candalero Avenue in Forest Knolls with a $150 minimum, and a 40-by-80 foot lot on Rosario Road in Forest Knolls at $50 minimum.

The tax delinquency sale is an annual event conducted by the tax collector-treasurer's office.

New Officer Starts On Ross Police Force

Patrolman Jeffrey Sousa, 22, of 53 Maple Avenue, Fairfax, began duty with Ross police force yesterday and brings its strength—depleted with the retirement of Chief Joseph J. Regoni last month—back to four men.

Sousa is still undergoing police training which he hopes to finish in October.

Pakistan Still Bars U.S. Air Evacuation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. Ambassador to Pakistan, Walter McConaughy, is keeping up pressure for permission to evacuate by air Americans caught in the war-zone between India and Pakistan.

A State Department spokesman said yesterday that Mac Conaughy was continuing to press the request by the United States for clearance for its planes. The Pakistani government has refused to approve the flights so far, saying that the demands of the fighting make the airlift impossible at this time.

Studio's Film Stolen On Italian Location

ROME (UPI)—United Artists reported yesterday that 400 feet of the film "Cast A Long Shadow" is missing and may have been stolen for ransom.

The film was of an action sequence by actors John Wayne and Kirk Douglas shot in a village near Rome. A spokesman said the company is turning the matter over to its insurance company.

CHILDREN, MATCHES—AND ANOTHER CLOSE CALL

The wind carries flames and smoke away from apartment houses on Jade Court in Novato in grass and brush fire which broke out at 2:45 p.m. yesterday and swept a two-acre area. Firemen blamed it on an all-too-frequent cause: children playing with matches. A much smaller grass fire in Kentfield yesterday was also blamed on children. Tiburon Seeks Hotel, Motel Guests Tax

Tiburon City Council last night introduced an ordinance which would tax the guests of a hotel which has yet to be built.

Members gave first reading to measures requiring a 4 per cent tax on transients using all hotel and motel rooms in town.

Tiburon has neither hotel nor motel. But plans are being drawn up for Tiburon Lodge, a 61-room hotel which would bring in about $6,570 a year in the "bed tax" alone, City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose told the council.

Rose made his calculations on the basis of the hotel being occupied 75 per cent of the time and the guests charged an average of $10 a night.

He said there was a rush by other cities in Marin earlier in the year to introduce ordinances effecting hotel rooms when a similar bill was introduced to the state legislature. The legislature did not act on the bill.

The city of Carmel, he said, is channeling money collected in room tax back into the city "and they're getting some of the things they've always wanted."

The Tiburn City Council also:

1. Extended for one year the interim zoning, use and land division regulations with two amendments which will provide appeal machinery and also set a time limit for planning commission action.

2. Approved an application to enlarge Belvedere Tennis Club by two courts, subject to fire, safety and traffic provisions.

Neighbors Object; Zoning Plan Denied

The Novato Planning Commission last night listened to objections of neighbors and denied rezoning from planned residential to light industrial for seven acres on Davidson Street.

Roberts and Aguirre had asked for the rezoning for a warehouse adjacent to the Novato Sewage Treatment Plant and across from the Western California Telephone Co. corporation yard.

However, neighbors objected the warehouse would generate increased traffic on sub-standard Davidson Street. The staff recommended in favor of the zone change.

The Novato Planning Commission Also:

1. Granted a use permit for a sewer treatment plant located in the Bahia subdivision off Bugeia Lane.

2. Approved the landscaping plan of five acres to be graded in excess of the city ordinance in Marin Golf and Country Club Heights Unit 1.

3. Denied use permits for family billiard parlors at 1610 Grant Avenue for Harry Simon and in the Novak Shopping Center for Charles L. Moore.

4. Approved division of one lot into three at Novato Creek and Grant Avenue by K. L. Healey.

5. Recommended rezoning from single to multiple family a lot at 1133 Second Street for Alfred J. Villa.

6. Approved plans of Roberts and Aguirre for the devolpment of the Los Robles Portion of the Loma Verde Master Plan on Redwood Highway south of Dusel Court.

7. Continued until Sept. 27 consideration of the tentative map of View Acres of 20 lots on 14 acres off Canyon Road, for Eleanor Saywer and of plans for an 18-unit apartment and addition of four units to an existing apartment building on Romar Court for P. J. Tarrant.

Draft Objector Chooses Prison

FRESNO (UPI)—A federal judge sentenced a Jehovah's Witness to three years in prison yesterday for refusal to be drafted.

Judge M. D. Crocker imposed the sentence after Samuel Nash Castro-Herta, 22, refused to accept charitable work as an alternative to the draft.

"You would rather spend your time in jail than serve your country in some way?" Crocker asked.

"Yes, your honor," Castro-Herta replied.

Oakland Blaze Fatal To Widow

OAKLAND (AP) — Mrs. Beatrice Roberts, 53, was burned to death last night when a fire broke out in her Oakland home. She was a widow.

Firemen said her body was found near the front door.

Fire Chief Clifton Bosch said the blaze was caused by cigarettes and estimated the damage at $35,000.

Town Votes Permit For Auto Agency

The Corte Madera planning commission last night unanimously awarded Bianco Cadillac of San Rafael a permit for an auto sales and service agency at 201 Casa Buena Avenue.

The commission denied the agency's request to add auto agencies as a permitted use in all highway commercial zones.

The commissioners also deadlocked on and therefore defeated an application submitted by one of their members for a free-standing sign at 118 Corte Madera Avenue.

Commissioner Harold Z. Wagstaff abstained during voting on the sign application, which he made a representative of Speedee Mart at that address.

The commission voted twice—first on a motion to deny the application, then to approve. Commissioner Jack Hauser and C. W. Thomas voted againht the application, Norman Eaton and Albert J. Boro, for it.

Town zoning administrator William McBride told the commission the size of the sign would be excessive and "the need of a free-standing sign on this site is questionable."

The commission set for Oct. 11 public hearing on application by W. O. Mall of 18 Echo Avenue for permission to operate a day care center for eight children.

The U. S. Corps of Engineers' New England Division, which operates the Cap Cod Canal, calls it one of its "most worthwhile projects."

Enrollment In Sausalito Increases

Sausalito School District has reversed a three-year trend with an increase in school enrollment.

There were 933 pupils enrolled on opening day yesterday compared to 914 at the start of last school year, Supt. Charles Lavaroni reported trustees last night. This does not include 115 pupils being bused from Mill Valley to Sausalito.

Trustees approved inter-district agreements last night and learned there are now 10 pupils going from Sausalito to Mill Valley and 11 pupils coming from Mill Valley to Sausalito, besides those in the fifth through eighth grade classes placed by Mill Valley in Richardson Bay School.

The board agreed to form an inter-district committee of six from the Sausalito and Mill Valley areas to study mutual concerns.

Sausalito School District trustees also

1. Raised the price of milk in school cafeterias from four to five cents a carton.
2. Agreed to meet at 8:30 a.m. Sept. 23 to tour district facilities while pupils are in school.
3. Were advised that four portable classrooms will be provided at central school by Speed Space Corp., Santa Rosa, to be delivered during week of Sept. 27, the rooms to house fourth graders now temporarily at Richardson Bay.
4. Approved next Monday as starting date for the pre-school program, to begin at 8:30 a.m. at Manzanita School.
5. Appointed trustees Nathaniel Johnson and Mrs. Jesse Zimmer to work with Lavaroni to set guidelines to establish a citizens building program study committee.
6. Asked Lavaroni to make preliminary plans for possible auction of old furniture.
7. Continued offer for job of fulltime librarian and, until fulltime librarian is secured, extended offer of part-time librarian to Mrs. Dorothy Tolpegin.
8. Heard that television station KNXT of Los Angeles took pictures yesterday of Mill Valley pupils arriving at Sausalito's Richardson Bay School, Lavaroni saying this was done because of racial problems in Los Angeles and that the TV crewmen were "generally impressed."

Shoplifter Chased

Louis Malvino of the Louis George men's clothing store in the Corte Madera shopping center told police yesterday that he watched a boy steal a $15 sweater from the store and then chased him across the parking lot. He gave police the license number of the car the boy drove away.

West Marin Schools Asked To Keep Music Instruction

The West Marin School District Board was petitioned last night to continue its program of instruction in musical instruments.

Mrs. Cecil R. Asman of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Inverness, speaking for several petitioning parents, praised the value of the program for youngsters.

The program has been threatened because the instructor lost his provisional credential and the school board has found it difficult to find another instructor who is willing to travel to the schools, said Supt. Howard F. Brose. It is also difficult to include the program in the district's short school day, he said.

"The board is still trying to find some way to keep this program and even broaden our general music program because we know it is very important," said Brose.

The board turned down a request by parents of two children outside of the school district for admission of children into kindergarten classes.

The board will meet again on Oct. 11.

Driver Injured Swerving Car

College of Marin student Linda A. Lagoni, 17, suffered minor injuries at 1:45 p.m. yesterday when she swerved her car to avoid a truck pulling onto the southbound lane of Highway 101 one mile north of Route 37 and it rolled over onto the divider strip, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Miss Lagoni, of 38 Western Drive, Novato, was to see her own doctor.

Driver of the truck was Kenneth G. Thompson, 20, of Santa Rosa, the patrol said.

Dr. Ascherman Again Uses Marin Hospital

Born: A son to the wife (Joyce E.) of Theodore H. Conway, 30 La Brea Way, Santa Venetia, at 3 a.m. today at Marin General Hospital.

The birth today of the first son and second child to Mrs. Conway was as uncomplicated as the announcement appears, but the circumstances were not so commonplace.

Attending physician was Dr. Stanford W. Ascherman, who also delivered the Conways' first baby at Marin General Hospital on May 26, 1964, after a row over refusal of hospital staff privileges that led to court — where it has still not been resolved.

Today, as then, Dr. Ascherman delivered Mrs. Conway's baby by special permission, with staff obstetrician, anesthetist and pediatrician on hand and the hospital's responsibility waived.

"Everyone at the hospital was extremely courteous and very cooperative," reported Dr. Ascherman.

The baby weighed 8 pounds 5 ounces.

Graham Better After Surgery

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham was resting in satisfactory condition today after a second trip to surgery.

Dr. Graham, 46, underwent surgery last Thursday for a prostate gland condition. He was taken back to surgery yesterday for cauterization of what a Mayo Clinic spokesman said was "a tiny blood vessel."

The spokesman said bleeding occurs in about one in a hundred such cases and is not considered serious.

It was expected Graham would be released from the hospital late this week.

CIGAR-LOVING THIEFS TAKE 300-POUND SAFE

Burglars who appreciate a good cigar removed a 300-pound safe from the Sausalito Boat and Tackle Shop at Waldo Point last night.

Owner Richard Urbias discovered his shop had been entered when he arrived for work at about 5 a.m. today. He said there were about $150 in cash and personal papers in the safe, but that missing also were a $200 pair of binoculars, two citizens' band radios, about a dozen handcrafted bait knives, and the store's complete supply of cigars.

Sheriff's deputies said the thieves smashed a rear window to the office and broke an aluminum bar across the window to get inside. The safe was taken out through the front door.

Firemen Hold Drill

Sausalito firemen acted as host to county fire training officials yesterday, conducting exercises including use of the aerial platform. Exercises are held once a month to improve and standardize fire training procedures and to perfect mutual aid systems, according to Frank Crist, Sausalito assistant fire chief.

New York Mayor Balloting Today

NEW YORK (AP) — New York voters select a Democratic nominee for mayor today.

The Democratic choice is among City Council President Paul R. Screvane, Comptroller Abraham D. Beame, Rep. William F. Ryan and Councilman Paul O'Dwyer.

The unopposed Republican candidate is Rep. John V. Lindsay, who also captured the coveted Liberal party backing.

Meredith Tells Plans

NEW YORK (AP)—James Meredith, newly registered Columbia University law student, says his studies are going to keep him too busy for much civil rights activity. Meredith, 32, first known Negro to enroll in the University of Mississippi, appeared at a news conference yesterday.

Fairfax Planning Vacancy Filled; Arrigoni Protests

John J. Hourihan of 68 San Gabriel Drive, Fairfax, was appointed to the Fairfaix Planning Commission last night by the city council.

Hourihan is owner of Marin Mortgage Co. at 900 Mission Avenue, San Rafael. His term of office will end Dec. 31, 1965.

The position was opened by resignation of Daniel M. Miller, chairman of the commission for four years.

Hourihan was nominated by Mayor Frank L. Lawrence. His appointment was opposed by Councilman Peter R. Arrigoni Jr.

"I voted that way because I am opposed to the method of appointment, not the man. The council is supposed to decide whether or not they should approve the mayor's nomination, but we don't know who the man to be nominated is until the very moment of the vote," explained Arrigoni after the meeting.

The Republic of Finland will celebrate the 50th anniversary of its independence in 1967.

Nursery Sales Shop 'Inspection' Due

Marin County zoning administrator Thomas E. Cordill yesterday said he wants to inspect the establishment of Owen Potter in West Marin before deciding whether to grant a use permit for a nursery sales shop.

Potter, appearing before Cordill yesterday, said that he had been selling fire wood and building materials in the agriculturally zoned district for some time. Cordill said this appeared to be in violation of the zoning ordinance.

Hub, Fairfax Citizens Battle Freeway Plans

the San Anselmo Planning Commission, said he could see no direct benefit to San Anselmo or Fairfax from a freeway. He urged that "aesthetic feasibility" be considered as well as engineering and economic feasibility.

Mrs. Mary Summers, one of the developers of the plan, said other routes, such as the proposed ridge route north of San Rafael, San Anselmo and Fairfax, had been considered and rejected.

"We have been advocating bypassing communities about as much as anyone else," Mrs. Summers said, "but here we had no other recommendation. The facilities had to be from the homes to where they were going to go. We basically put the highway where the people were."

She said there should be great care taken in the design of such a freeway, and that the section beyond Fairfax should be a scenic highway.

Residents should ask the State Division of Highways to investigate a stacked or depressed freeway, she said. The cities would be divided less by a depressed freeway than they are now "by traffic pouring along a grade," Mrs. Summers contended.

County Public Works Director Donald R. Frost said his staff agrees with the route recommended in the plan because "it is questionable whether any other route would give the same service.

If the freeway were constructed north of San Rafael "less traffic would be diverted, and it wouldn't relieve the internal traffic problem," he said.

Frost noted that traffic on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard was jammed yesterday with opening of College of Marin from the Hub intersection in San Anselmo to Eliseo Drive in Greenbrae.

The committee received a letter from the Larkspur City Council recommending the route through San Rafael, San Anselmo and Fairfax.

Larkspur City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper said "the closer the route is to the developed area, the more people will use it."

Mrs. Dorothy Olson of Fairfax questioned whether the proposed freeway "would provide the kind of living environment we would like."

Gerald M. Drennan, district planning engineer for the State Division of Highways, said the division could not yet present proposed freeway design "but is not considering an Embarcadero or Bayshore."

It was suggested that perhaps two parkways, one through the populated area and another north of the cities could be constructed. Drennan said "two parkways wouldn't do the job. A freeway does the job of three or four or maybe more parkways."

Planning Commission Chairman Felix M. Warburg, who was sitting in as a visitor, said there may be two separate problems: First, providing a high-speed route to West Marin, and second, relieving local traffic along Sir Francis Drake and Miracle Mile.

There also is the question of "which comes first, people or cars," Warburg said. "The terrain is basically vertical and the solutions horizontal."

Warburg suggested that two or three levels on a right-of-way be considered, particularly a depressed freeway.

The committee received a letter from the Fairfax City Council favoring a route proposed by Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, which extends westward from Highway 101 near the Civic Center and across the ridges north of San Rafael, San Anselmo and Fairfax.

Committee members, who took all comments under study, are Hugh Dougherty, chairman, Niels Schultz Jr. and Margaret Azevedo.

About 30 persons attended the two-and-one-half hour session. There was little discussion on the proposed extension of Route 37 through Novato to Point Reyes Station.

Viet Nam Vets Due State Loans

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Joseph M. Farber, director of veterans affairs, said today a new group of California war veterans can start receiving farm and home loans next Friday.

On that date, a bill passed by the legislature making qualified veterans of the Viet Nam action and eight other peacetime actions will go into effect.

Farber said veterans who may be entitled to loans under the new bill may make applications immediately The veterans must have been born in California, or entered the service as residents of the state.

New Expense Tallied

Recent action by the Marin County Board of Supervisrs approving $25 for members of the county planning commission for each meeting attended, up to four meetings a month, will add $4,482 to county expenses for the balance of fiscal 1966, county Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell announced today.

Bishop Pike Invests Woman As Episcopal Deaconess

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Mrs. Phyllis Edwards is the first Episcopalian woman to be addressed as "the reverend."

Bishop James A. Pike of California recognized her and invested her as a minister yesterday in services at Grace Cathedral

Mrs. Edwards is a deaconess and her name was added to the canonical clergy list, following the investiture.

She lacks the right to serve communion or perform marriages.

The investiture confirmed action taken last week by the Episcopal House of Bishops clarifying the ministerial status of deaconesses.

Bishop Pike unsuccessfully had sought approval at the House of Bishops meeting to ordain Mrs. Edwards.

Instead, Bishop Pike said the investiture is in effect a recognition of the continuing service of Mrs. Edwards in a San Francisco neighborhood and of her degrees in theology.

Bishop Pike draped a red stole over the right shoulder of the white-robed deaconess as a symbol of her ministry.

She took an oath of conformity to the "doctrine, discipline and worshop of the church."

Bishop Pike, who has long sought the liberalization of the church's rules regarding women, said the confirmation of her ministry was "but a little step forward."

"We are on the edge of a much bigger question," he said. "The church is negotiating unity with the United Presbyterian Church, the Methodist Church, The United Church of Christ, the Evangelical United Brethren and the Disciplies of Christ—all of which ordain women as pastoral ministers."

The first scientific breakthrough to get banner headlines was the discovery of X rays by Wilhelm Roentgen in 1895.

Ends Training

WHAT IS SQUARE IN TEEN DANCES?

Belvedere Council Seeks To Revive Regulations For Friday Night Events

Theme of the discussion on teen dance regulation at last night's Belvedere city council meeting turned out to be the old fashioned virtues vs. current attitudes of the high school set.

Rev. Llewellyn A. White of St. Stephen's Episcopal parish, speaking as a member of the recreation committee, said the community should go along with teen customs.

"After all," he said, "some of the dances and things we did in our day must have looked strange to our parents, too.

"Oh, we had one real fracas last spring that closed the dances for a month, and there have been complaints about the noise, but on the whole I feel the dances have gone pretty well."

Mrs. Chester C. Vargas, speaking from the audience, disagreed. She said she ran a successful series of teen dances for the city for about nine years. Needed, she said, are some strict ground rules.

"Make them wear party clothes . . . get everyone participating . . . keep changing partners . . . have them thank the chaperones at the end of the dance . . . form a decorating committee," said Mrs. Vargas.

"Those are things they should have learned at dancing school," exclaimed acting mayor Sally Mathews.

Rev. White said Mrs. Vargas' suggestions just wouldn't work.

"Kids today think those things are square, whether this is right or not. We tried electing officers and forming a decorating committee," he said, "but they just wouldn't go along with it. Some staw after the dances to clean up, because they know there won't be any more dances if they don't. But that's all."

Councilman John R. Moore said he felt the main problem was "all the in, out, in, out business" and the "outsider." He suggested a "super-secret" card or marking on the hand that could be changed every time there was a dance.

Rev. White said he felt being marked on the hand was a little degrading.

Councilman Edwin J. Dreschal asked Rev. White how many chaperones attended the every-other Friday night dances.

"Since the rules changed last spring," Rev White answered, "four."

"What dou you mean by 'the rules changed'?" Dreschal shot back. "No rule changes were authorized."

Rev. White said originally there were six adults and a police officer at each dance, but parents did not take enough interest.

It was finally agreed that there would be no more dances without the full accompaniment of chaperones; that the smoking area outside would be made small with perhaps some benches put in, and that a closer check be kept on teen-agers trying to crash the dances from other communities.

City Mgr. William L, Cavalli reported the dances had been self-supporting until last Friday "when the kids got wind of the bash in San Rafael (the fall festival 'battle of the combos') and stayed away."

There was no teen-ager in the small audience.

The Belvedere City Council Also:

1. Increased the amount of bond for the city clerk for $1,000 to $7,000.
2. Renewed the city's property and fire insurance.
3. Voted to support the county supervisors' resolution calling for a state legislature session on tax reforms.
4. Tabled discussion of a transient occupancy tax ordinance.
5. Voted to contract with the Marin Municipal Water District to extend the fire line on Belvedere Avenue for $7,004.
6. Agreed to have Cavalli seek approval from the state division of highways for city-owned signs on the highway approaching the city.
7. Agreed to wait until the meeting of Marin council of mayors and councilmen to discuss appointments to the Marin County rapid transit district board. Belvedere will be host city for that meeting, Sept. 28 at the San Francisco Yacht Club.
8. Heard a letter from the State Division of Highways turning down a request for a pedestrian crosswalk at Mar West Street on Tiburon Boulevard. Cavalli said, however, the state was still checking the request.

Mayor Merritt K. Ruddock was absent.

Police Free One Attack Case Suspect

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police have released one of two suspects in the alleged beating of a cocktail waitress who claims her clothes were ripped from her.

Robert P. Mack, 23, an engineering student, was freed Monday after a soldier, Jacobo L. Fiesta, 20, walked into the Hall of Justice and told police he was wanted.

After questioning Fiesta, police freed Mack and charged Fiesta with assault with intent to rape the woman and attempt to murder a policeman.

Mack's half-brother, Charles R. Sutter, 29, a salesman, was held on the same charges.

Mack and Sutter, who shared an apartment, were arrested after a bullet punctured truck in which the attempted rape allegedly took place was found in front of their apartment.

Jo Ann Maize, 22, told police she met the men in a bar where she worked as a topless cocktail waitress and accepted a ride from them.

She claims the men ripped her clothes from her and left her nude on a street.

Police halted the truck to investigate the woman's complaint. They said the driver sped off and they fired at it.

Officers claim the driver tried to hit a policeman with the truck. This was the basis for the attempted murder charge.

State's Tomato Crop Lags 1964 Harvest

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The harvesting delivery of the California tomato crop is nearly 500,000 tons behind last year's harvest, the Council of California Growers reported today.

Deliveries to processors through the first week of September amounted to 584,000 tons compared with 1,051,000 tons a year ago.

Oregon Police Find Weapons In Pair's Cell

Three files and a pocket knife have been found in the Oregon jail cells of two captured San Quentin Prison escapees, Associate Warden James W. L. Park said today.

He said Police Chief R. W. Brower of The Dalles, Ore., told him he found the files in the cells of Donald Pagett and Harold Roney.

"He is quite anxious to get rid of them because of their predilection for escape," Park said.

Padgett, 31, and Roney, 35, will remain in Oregon for at least a few days, however, as they have refused to waive extradition, Park said. He said San Quentin has initiated extradition proceedings.

Padgett and Roney escaped over the San Quentin wall Aug. 11 but were captured 12 days later in The Dalles, after being spotted in a reportedly stolen car containing a loaded shotgun.

The Dalles police did not know what they were getting involved in when they first picked up the two felons on suspicion of auto theft. They learned that the pair were escaped convicts when Padgett and Roney admitted it themselves.

Padgett and Roney, both convicted of robbery, escaped from San Quentin by means of a hook thrown to the top of the wall while a guard positioned to watch the area was decoyed by an as-yet untraced call.

Temblor In Hollister

BERKELEY (AP)—The university of California seismographic station recorded a light earthquake early today in the Hollister area.

The tremor registered about four on the Richter scale which measured the 1906 quake in San Francisco at 8.25.

Johnsons Send Sandberg Roses

HENDERSONVILLE, N.C. (AP)—Two dozen roses from President and Mrs. Johnson brightened Carl Sandburg's hospital room today.

The poet and Lincoln biographer, 87, was admitted last Friday to Pardee Memorial Hospital. He is being treated for an abdominal disorder.

Dr. D. I. C. King, who said Monday that the author was improving, said today Sandburg's condition was unchanged.

County Asks Reports On Fluoridation Status

The Marin County Board of Supervisors today asked for a full report from the county health department on the status of fluoridation programs for domestic water systems throughout the nation, with the thought of encouraging the two major water districts in Marin to consider fluoridation.

This was suggested by Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker, who said he thought it the board's responsibility to encourage both the Marin Municipal Water District and the North Marin County Water District to hold elections on the issue.

He said the county "threw a block" on the North Marin district last spring by preventing a vote on the issue through a legal technicality.

Leydecker put his suggestion in a motion and Supervisor William M. Gnoss seconded it, but on suggestion of Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, the request was put to the health department without any vote on the motion.

Quints Have Quiet Second Birthday Fete

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP)—The Fischer quintuplets observed their second birthday today in the quiet of their large home southwest of here. James Andrew, Mary Margaret, Mary Magdalene, Mary Catherine and Mary Ann are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Fischer.

They have six brothers and sisters. When the quintuplets were born the father was a $76-a-week shipping clerk. Now he raises cattle on an 800-acre farm.

The family income has been provided by the appearance of the quintuplets in magazines and advertisements. They are rarely seen in town here, and since their birth the family has been withdrawn.

Few tourists beat a path to this town, and the only sign of significance is a billboard at the edge of town announcing that Aberdeen is the home of the quintuplets. The sign is partly hidden by stalks of ripening corn.

While the townspeople regret that the publicity-shy family has not created a economic bonanza here, most of them said in a recent interview they respect the family's desire for privacy.

Jolon, valley in Monterey County, means valley of dead oaks, an Indian name. Mission San Antonio de Padua is near Jolon.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN SAVE OLD FIRE TRUCK

Belvedere's 1930 fire truck won't be sold, after all.

As the Belvedere City Council prepared last night for opening of bids on the old Chevrolet truck, volunteer fireman Erwin Farley arose to ask if his letter had been received.

What letter? asked City Mgr. William L. Cavalli.

"Well," said Farley, "after reading about the old truck in the I-J, some of us volunteer firemen took a vote and decided we'd like to keep it and fix it up. . . It wouldn't get much use, but the kids would get a kick out of it."

Councilmen decided the sale could be cancelled.

"After all," said Councilman John R. Moore, "if we have to sell it later, we may have a real antique."

There were three bids, the highest being $263 by William H. Nigh III of Larkspur.

Coed Beating Victim Still Unconscious

SAN JOSE (UPI)— A pretty honor student from the University of California at Davis, found savagely beaten in the garage of a hotel here Sunday, remained unconscious and in "extremely critical" condition today.

Bernadette Henderson, 21, Oakland, apparently was attacked when she left her car in the garage of the Saint Claire Hotel, police said.

Fairfax Authorizes Use Of Planning Aide

The Fairfax City Council last night authorized city planning consultant Warren Jones to aid the planning commission in preparation of planned unit development district and private road ordinances.

A request from the planning commission that Jones be authorized by the council to aid them in five different areas was opposed by Councilman Waldemar E. Radtke.

"Only in the areas of planned unit development and private road ordinances do the abilities of the planning commission fall short of what is needed. I don't think that we should allow the planning commission to rely completely on their consultant," said Radtke.

Jones, as the city's planning consultant, works on an hourly wage. A maximum of $3,500 was budgeted by the council for his services.

Councilman Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. argued "I don't think that they would ask for help if they didn't need it."

The council decided to approve Jones's work on planned unit and private road ordinances, holding the areas of a subdivision ordinance, an architectural review ordinance, and commercial district zoning revisions for future discussion.

The Fairfax City Council also:

1. Instructed the planning commission to act on an application for planned unit zoning on two acres of land recently annexed to the city, without waiting for ordinance revision. The land is owned by Farr Associates, and lies between Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Olema Drive.

2. Set public hearing Oct. 11 on a request to make Scenic Road one-way between Bay and Redwood Roads. The request was made by six residents who said the street is too narrow for the present load of traffic.

3. Authorized hiring the State Department of Finance to make a new estimate of the city's population, which councilmen expect to be around 7,300. The last population estimate in 1963 set Fairfax population at 6,675. The estimate will cost $190. Councilmen expect it to bring Fairfax $5,200 in increased revenues.

4. Established by ordinance nine full-day and one half-day holidays for city employees.

5. Instructed City Engineer Richard Nelson to prepare an inventory of all city-owned properties.

6. Approved plans and specifications for resurfacing of Pacheco, Dominga, and Merwin Avenues and the upper-most section of Scenic Road, and called for bids on the work. The cost, estimated by the city engineer at $12,542.50, is to come from gasoline tax revenues.

County Group Studies Need For A Manager

Directors of the Marin County Employees Assn. agreed last night to circulate an information sheet describing what an association manager could do for the group.

Association president La Verne Robinson said the sheet will be distributed at the end of the month and a general meeting called for Oct. 5. The association now has no paid manager.

Marin Supervisors Dubious Of News Merger Propriety

Marin County supervisors today asked for a full report from the U. S. Justice Department on the facts behind and justification for the merger of San Francisco newspapers.

The action was at the instance of Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker. He charged that the move, allowing shift of the San Francisco Examiner to afternoon publication, combining it with the News-Call Bulletin, has permitted an effective split of the advertising market.

He originally asked for a board resolution requesting an investigation by the Justice Department.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen seconded the motion and said that Marin citizens would also be slighted through lack of competition in news coverage.

Supervisors William A. Gnoss, Peter H. Behr and Thomas T. Storer all had reservations about asking an investigation.

Behr suggested that the motion be watered down to request all the facts in detail from the Justice Department. This passed.

Kindergarten Surplus Solved In Kentfield

The Kentfield School District board last night agreed to hire a part-time teacher and shift 10 pupils from Adaline E. Kent to Wolfe Grade School to meet an unexpected surplus of kindergarten children.

Supt. Howard C. Harmon said there were 25 more of the first-year students than expected at the two schools, but the problem could be met by adding a hafl-time teacher and shifting a few children.

He said the youngsters who change schoools live in an area almost equidistant from both schools.

The board also approved plans for the eighth addition to Kent School—a shop area and storage space.

Harmon told the board the addition of six classrooms and a multi-use area at Wolfe Grade School will not be ready for approval until next meeting.

The board authorized extension of a covered walkway at that school for $206 and agreed that Harmon should employ a landscape architect to develop a landscape plan for the new addition to the school.

The board approved employment of James H. Klopstock and Maryland K. White as noontime supervisors and of Jack Waller Jr. as after school recreation director at Kent School.

They also established prices for the private sale of "obsolete" furniture such as desks, chairs and tables.

Behr Calls For Outlawing Private Citizens' Handguns

Marin County Supervisor Peter H. Behr today spoke out strongly against possession of hand guns by anyone other than law enforcement officers.

When the day comes when laws are passing restricting ownership of hand guns, "we will really be making progress," he said.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos agreed. He said many are injured by their own guns in any kind of a scuffle. He also said that in 90 per cent of the house burglaries in Marin, a gun is among the loot taken.

The discussion arose after the board adopted an amendment to the ordinance restricting shooting of firearms, including air guns and B-B guns, near buildings. The old ordinance required that malicious intent be proved in such cases.

The new ordinance bans all shooting within 150 yards of a building.

Supervisors Chide Army Incinerator

Marin County supervisors are going to ask the Army Corps of Engineers to curb operation of an incinerator in Marinship near Sausalito, saying that it violates rules of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss said the corps, being a federal agency, was not subject to the control district rules. Gnoss is a director of the pollution control district.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, who suggested today's action, said that was just the point he was trying to make.

He said the other members of the board resolved recently to censor the Atomic Energy Commission for its plan to put overhead lines across Woodside.

Kettenhofen abstained then, saying it was beyond the province of the county board.

"Here we have something in our own backyard," Kettenhofen said.

Bolinas Asks Fire Station Retention

Bolinas Fire Protection District commissioners last night urged County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom, not to remove the county's one-man fire station from Bolinas.

Bloom presented his argument that the station and cost of Fire Warden Sherman Smith to manage the equipment is too costly at $12,000 per year.

Commissioners argued that, with the Bolinas station gone, it would take one hour for county fire trucks to reach the Bolinas watershed at Arroyo Honda Canyon. The subject is due to come before the county supervisors, said Commissioner James Dougan.

The commission would like to have at least until next July 1 to do something to offset the removal, Dougan said. He also suggested that something such as a community services district or county-wide fire district might be instigated to provide all fire fighting services in unincorporated areas — or all of Marin County—under one head.

He said it has been proposed that Inverness's one-man station also be removed.

Disorganization Blamed For Row At Teen Program

Marin County Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen said today that it was the fault of adults, not adolescents, that trouble erupted at the "Battle of the Combos" in front of the county courthouse in downtown San Rafael Friday night.

Kettenhofen praised San Rafael police, sheriff's deputies and the California Highway Patrol in keeping fights to a minimum.

Kettenhofen, who attended the program after hearing that trouble was expected, said that very few of the 3,000 youths there were able to hear the music. Consequently they got restless.

He said the idea was a good one, but he hoped that if it is attempted again, it will be organized and presented properly.

Motel Customers Take Video Sets

Two television sets proved too portable in San Rafael yesterday.

Irving Litchfield, manager of the Bermuda Palms Motel at 737 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, told police at 8:40 p.m. that two women rented a room in his motel Sunday night and took the television set with them when they left.

Robert D. Lewis, owner of Bob's TV Service at 703 Third Street, told police that a portable television was stolen from his shop sometime between Thursday and yesterday morning.

Parks Discussed

The Novato Parks and Recreation Commission last night discussed size and location of parks in a study of the parks and recreation phase of the Novato master plan. It did not pinpoint any possible park sites.

INFORMATION CHIEF—Col. Robert R. Fishel has been named to head the Office of Information at Hamilton Air Force Base, succeeding Lt. Col. Normand H. Traverso, who retired from the Air Force in June. Fisher was formerly chief of Flight Operations Division Headquarters of the Air Force Logistics Command at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio.

Report Ordered On Car Suspect

Marin County's probation officer was asked today to make a report on Timothy Vincent Ferranti, 20, before he goes on trial on a car theft charge.

Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating ordered the report for the defense even though the district attorney's office protested it was ready for trial immediately.

Ferranti, of Redwood City, was shot by a San Rafael policeman May 3 after a chase to Corte Madera. He was charged with the theft of an auto owned by Gene D. Bluder, 275 Canal Street, San Rafael. He has been serving a sentence for another offense in San Mateo County.

Expert Says Teachers Need Integration Help

Dr. Staten Webster, newly hired consultant on inter-group relations, suggested training programs in integration for teachers last night to Mill Valley School District trustees.

He also suggested establishment of an inter-district committee (with Sausalito School District) to assist and advise on integration problems and use of "extensive efforts to communicate with parents."

Webster was hired by Mill Valley and Sausalito school districts as well as the county superintendent of schools office.

He saw danger of possible reaction to use of Richardson Bay School rooms by Mill Valley classes, and cited inexperience of some teachers in inter-group relations and difficulty of establishing communications with some parents.

The Mill Valley school district board of trustees also:

1. Set for Sept. 25 an all-day workshop to discuss what grades should be in what schools.

2. Approved inter-district agreements as follows: 12 from Sausalito to Mill Valley, four from Mill Valley to Sausalito and one from Mill Valley to Reed district.

3. Heard that 3,494 pupils enrolled in school yesterday, comparing to 3,391 last year.

4. Accepted resignation of Mrs. Helen Bruner, third grade, Park School, who is being married; granted a year's leave to custodian Roy Knechtle, and hired teachers Susan Castagna, Mrs. Donald Bell and Mrs. Richard Smith.

Television Program Filmed In Mill Valley

Screen star Robert Preston was filmed yesterday in a scene for a new television series, "This Proud Land," on Mill Valley's rolling and wooded Scott Highlands.

The program, produced by American Broadcasting Co., is a series of five shows concerning the United States from shore to shore and will begin Nov. 9 on station KGO-TV. Site of the filming was on property of George C. Goheen's Marin Capital Co.

Police Duties Consolidation To Be Heard

Marin County Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos has suggested several areas where police operations could be consolidated to increase law enforcement efficiency, and county supervisors want to pursue the ideas.

The board of supervisors today scheduled a discussion for next Tuesday on Mountanos's ideas, which include one inspectors' bureau and one juvenile bureau for the whole county.

Mountanos also suggests the same salary scale for all officers throughout the county, and a police academy operation, perhaps on an in-service basis, in the county.

Supervisors invited any interested police chiefs to attend next week's discussion.

It came to light before the board today that two sheriff's deputies have resigned because of low salaries. They are James B. Kane and Jerry Herman, each getting $562 a month.

Mountanos told the Independent-Journal that two other deputies are expected to resign to take higher paying jobs.

"We did not get raises for the deputies this year," Mountanos said, referring to the board's turn-down of his pleas at budget time last June.

Clubhouse Reopening Date Given

Mill Valley's muncipal golf clubhouse, closed since mid-July for repairs, will be reopened Oct. 1, Don Dimitratos, director of parks and recreation, reported last night to the city's park and recreation commission.

Dimitratos also reported that work will start "right away" on improvement of Sycamore and Molino parks. Grading, turfing and a sprinkler system are to be included in Sycamore Park improvements. The bank will be planted, a sprinkler system installed and lines painted on asphalt for court games at Molino playground.

The commission discussed the proposed planned unit development in Blithedale Canyon near Manzanita Place for more than an hour, but took no action.

Dimitratos suggested the city work with the Mill Valley School District to obtain a swimming pool at Project 17. Besides the pool, commissioners envision three tennis courts, improved ball diamonds and a marshland bird refuge in addition to the present horse ring, Commissioner Jean Barnard reported.

Senior Citizen Spokesman Opposes Committee Foldup

Richard Phenix, county coordinator of senior citizen activities, appeared before the county board of supervisors today to oppose dissolution of his citizen advisory committee.

The committee voted last night to authorized Phenix to oppose "without reservation" a report by County Administrator Alan Bruce which proposes doing away with this and some other committees.

Bruce, in his report, recommended that the supervisors make no new appointment to the committee, even though vacancies now exist.

He also recommended against creating a community activity center committee recommended in Phenix's master plan for older adults.

Dr. Marjorie E. Belknap, chairman of the citizen advisory committee, pointed out last night's meeting that the supervisors have already expressed themselves in favor of the county activities center committee and another committee to study the effects of compulsory retirement.

Both committees would be eligible for special federal funds, according to Phenix.

Robbery Report Merely A Joke?

Bookkeeper Dorothy Dellepere of the Diamond National Lumber Co. in Point Reyes Station reported an attempted robbery yesterday, but today company officials said they wanted to forget the whole thing.

Sheriff's officers were willing to do just that, deciding that the attempt was probably just a joke, although they were not amused. Mrs. Dellepere said two men came in about 12:15 p.m. and one said, "This is a stick up."

They showed no weapons and left hurriedly when another customer came in, she reported. She did not report the incident for a half hour, and then could give no description of the car.

Heavy Trading Slows Long Market Advance

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed lower today, snipping off a string of eight straight daily advances. Trading was heavy.

The list was on the upside most of the day despite profit taking but in late afternoon buying support departed from some of the big gainers of recent sessions.

Boeing lost 3 or more, Zenith 2 and General Motors nearly 2.

New York Central was another 2-point loser.

Ford clung to a fractional gain after showing exceptional strength in early dealings.

Down about a point were such stocks as Pennsylvania Railroad, Eastman Kodak, General Electric and Eastern Air Lines.

Volume for the day was estimated at 7.9 million shares compared with 7.04 million yesterday.

Here was the picture toward the close:

Dealings were turbulent and many big blocks changed hands as gains of key stocks, running from fractions to a point or so, outnumbered losers.

The early advance was cut back by almost half for the over-all list and there was sharp profit taking among recent big winners.

Boeing plummeted more than 3 points, Eastman Kodak, Fairchild Camera, National Airlines and Northwestern Airlines around a point each.

KLM Airlines, down more than 4, was upset by a plan to call debentures convertible into common.

I-J Business And Finance Page

On the plus side, Douglas Aircraft spurted another couple points. Up a point or so were Du Pont, Ford, Chrysler, Union Carbide, Xerox, Kennecott, Johns-Manville, American South African Investment, TWA and Standard Oil (New Jersey).

Group action was highly irregular although the trend among building materials and cigarette shares seemed safely higher.

Endicott Johnson rose about 2 on acquisition news. Fairchild Hiller, up a fraction, looked like a repeater as the day's most active stock. Also very active, Magnavox gained a fraction, Texas Gulf Sulphur raced up more than a point and Pan American World Airways was unchanged.

Diners' Club sank nearly 2 on news that merger talks with J. C. Pennedy had been called off. Pet Milk rose about 3.

Revlon was up a point or so. Storer Broadcasting rose nearly 3.

Walgreen lost 1 at 30 on a block of 76,900 shares. Northern Pacific was unchanged at 49½ on 25,000 shares. Kansas City Power & Light gained ⅛ at 44½ on 21,600 shares.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Croporate bonds were mostly unchanged in light trading. U.S. Treasury bonds advanced.

Two Boeing Jets Leased

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Pacific Air Lines has announced it has leased two Boeing 72 jets for delivery next June and July and has purchased four Boeing 737s to be delivered early in 1968.

Matthew E. McCarthy, chairman of the board, said Pacific plans to introduce the 119-passenger 727s over routes serving San Francisco, Los Angeles, Fresno, Bakersfield, San Jose and Reno-Lake Tahoe.

Pacific Air Lines serves 37 cities in California, Nevada and Oregon with more than 180 flights daily.

Included in the agreement with Boeing is an option to buy two more 727s for early 1967 delivery and four 737s for late 1968 and early 1969 delivery.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

New Cosmetics Outlet Opens; Sister Clothing Shop Is Due

A new wholesale cosmetic business — Holiday Sales — has opened offices at 506 Third Street, San Rafael.

This company will market the products of Holiday Magic, Inc., which is embarked upon a nation-wide campaign of promotion, and is an affiliate of the fast growing Zolene Organic Cosmetics, Inc. that moved to San Rafael from Santa Rosa just a few years ago.

Holiday Sales, under the management of Mrs. De De Murrell of Marinwood, will distribute through "Holiday Girls," trained in corrective makeup and cosmetic application, who will do their selling in the home.

This definitely is not a door to door operation, says Mrs. Murrell. Holiday saleswomen (the company hopes to have 200 of them in Marin and the northern counties) will make their customer contacts only through referrals of other cosmetic users and as developed from television, radio and newspaper advertising.

Smith

The company will have two instructors to train the girls. Mrs. Murrell herself has been trained in this field, having previously been with Avon Cosmetics.

FASHION ALLEY, women's clothing store on Main Street, Tiburon and owned by Mrs. J. J. Raskob of Belvedere, will have a sister shop in Mill Valley on Oct. 1. It will be located at Miller and Sunnyside Avenues, have the same decor as the Tiburon shop and carry the same type of clothing and European imports.

JERRY SMITH of Novato, former KTIM radio announcer and sports car enthusiast who left the station last October to join Bice-Peterson Associates, San Francisco, as a sports car publicist, has gone into business for himself. He, William Finefrock and Russell Goebel of the East Bay now have their own agency, Finefrock, Goebel and Smith, Inc. Offices are at 15 Boardman Place, San Francisco.

The company handles advertising, promotions and publicity — primarily for automobile shows and sports car races, but is commencing to branch out in other fields.

IMAGE OF MARIN is the name of a magazine that will appear on newsstands in April, 1966 — a 104-page printing devoted entirely to Marin.

Featured will be color photographs and black and white photos by Ernest Braun, Ken Molino and Josef Muench; a tale of Sir Francis Drake's arrival here in 1579, an essay on seacoast Highway 1, an article on the towns of Marin, another on the Pacific Biological Center, works of art at the Marin Art and Garden Festival and other bits on boating, industry, home developments, schedule of events, and so on. All advertisers will be local businesses.

Publisher is Corey Publishing Co., headquartered in Santa Rosa and now with an office at 56 Harbor Street, San Rafael. For the past three years Corey has published "Sonoma County U.S.A.," an annual magazine portraying the varied beauty of our neighbor to the north. After an enthusiastic response, Marin loomed up as the first logical choice in expanding operations.

Printing next April will have an initial circulation of 10,000 copies. Distribution will be handled by Miller-Freeman Publications and the magazine will be carried on newsstands. Other copies will find their way into banks, savings and loan offices, libraries, schools, business firms, doctors' and dentists' offices, real estate firms and industries throughout California and other states.

Shareholders To End Bank Voting Trust

A majority of the shareholders of Central Valley National Bank have signed certificates to terminate the bank's voting trust.

Michael G. Rafton, chairman of the shareholders rights committee, said that within one week after receiving the committee's recommendation, more than 900 shareholders owning more than 55 per cent of the voting trust certificates "signed and transmitted directions to terminate the trust." More signatures are coming in daily he said.

Official depositary for the shareowners' orders is Prof. Richard W. Jennings of the University of California Law School, who is expected to present them to the voting trustees after Sept. 17. At this time a bill approved at the last session of the Legislature permits the dissolution of any voting trust by a simple majority of the trust certificate holders.

Central Valley National Bank is headquartered in Oakland and has 27 branches throughout Northern California, including an office in Novato.

Marin Preps Ready, Eager For Kickoff This Weekend

By MAURICE WEINGER

All seven football teams in the Marin County Athletic League held their final practice-scrimmage last weekend before heading into combat against non-league opponents this Friday and Saturday.

Most of the coaches seemed fairly optimistic on what they saw and some questions as to who would start were answered as the respective schools worked out for an average of two hours each.

Opening games this week are: Friday—Albany at Marin Catholic, 3:30 p.m.; Redwood vs. Mt. Diablo at Kentfield, 3:30; McClymonds at San Rafael, 3:30; Terra Linda vs. Clayton Valley at San Rafael High, 8 p.m.; Drake at Petaluma, 8.

Saturday — Tamalpais vs. Riordan at Kentfield, 1:30 p.m.; College Park at Novato, 2 p.m.

Besides the MAL, other opening action Friday are Tomales at the San Rafael Military Academy at 3:15 and Menlo College at College of Marin, 8 p.m.

Defending champion Drake found, according to coach Bob Franceschini, "the men to fill the spots hit by graduation." At fullback, Franceschini nominated Tony Iacopi, a 210-pounder to take the place vacated by Joe DeMasi. "He's a powerful driver who can run real hard," the coach of nine straight wins said.

Franceschini also stated sadly that flanker back John Boothby is probably lost for the season because of an injury suffered during the summer, and 6-3 Scott Sibbald will take the position.

With Sibbald at the flanker spot, two new ends, 5-11 Don Alvarado, a sophomore, and 6-1 Chet Carlise, a junior, will be at the receiving spots. "I feel we have two fine ends and our quarterback can now throw to either side without any problem," Franceschini stated.

An injury to Rich Cohen, who won one of the tackle spots, will probably keep him out of the Pirates' opening game this Friday at Petaluma.

Novato, which many prognasticators feel may overtake Drake this season, had a spirited scrimmage, but coach Harry Moore felt "the players were not working together as a team." Moore praised his defense for holding the offense to two touchdowns, both scored by Dick Otis, the highly-touted runner. Two Novato defenders, end Bruce Palmer and tackle John Russell, are out with knee injuries suffered in practice when offensive tackle John Youngs, a 225 pounder, blocked them. The quarterback situation, where there is a battle between senior John Dolinsek and junior Harold Fain, wasn't solved and Moore probably won't announce his starter before this Saturday's game against College Park.

Bob Troppmann, the dean of MCAL coaches, felt his Redwood team did a fine job before 300 parents and friends at the annual demonstration day.

"I was real pleased with our game, but overall it was a fine afternoon," said Troppmann.

Individuals mentioned were Len Pieri, Harvey Hand, Tom Sather, Ken Tucker and Dan Durham, the latter being elected by the team as captain for the Giants' first game against Mt. Diablo this Friday at Kentfield.

Redwood is going through an injury jinx with six possible

'Somebody Up There Likes Hymn' Featured At Stars Tournament

"My Lord," the good Padre groaned in mock shock, and at the same time sneaking in a plug for his sponsor, "collections haven't been THAT good lately. Heavenly days!"

The Rev. Leonard Scannell, golfdom's answer to "Somebody Up There Likes Me," was only joking, of course, when discussing the $150 entry fee for amateurs in next Sunday's Tournament of Stars golf funfest at Peacock Gap. If he's on the shorts, there's always the second collection, eh Father?

Now $150 may seem a stiff greens fee—especially since you don't get to keep the greens—but those lucky enough to get an invitation to this tourney rate it the best bargain of the year. It's for charity (Marin Youth Fund), it's a gas and besides, a C½ note is lunch money for the well-to-do invitees.

THE TOURNEY of Stars is Marin's premier pasture pool presentation with a blend of Hollywood screen personalities and some of the state's finest amateur shot-makers offering quite a show. At $2 a head, it's a Red Tag Days bargain for young and old, male and female.

For the starry-eyed, the celeb list includes the names of Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Donald O'Connor, Andy Williams, comics Rowan and Martin, Bob Newhart and many more. And, if fine amateur golf is your cup of tee, there'll be plenty of that, too.

INCLUDED IN the latter category is none other than our friend Father Scannell, the Catholic chaplain at Hamilton Air Force Base who plays golf like Gary Prayer. (Sorry about that.) His drives are so straight he is known as the priest with the guided missile. (And that, too).

In last year's first T of S, Father Scannell wowed a crowd of 3,500 by tying for low gross honors with a sparkling 70. (It was played on the Sabbath so I think he had something going for him.)

PAR-DRE SCANNELL is a gallery favorite for his blend of good golf and beaming personality. He's quick with the quip and has been known to hold his own in company with pros like Bob Hope. His personality is such that in tournaments like these — where actors abound — you'd swear (oops) that he played Doris Day's father in her latest flick.

Golfers have mixed emotions about being paired with Father Scannell. A lie — unplayable or little white—means either a two-stroke penalty or 10 Hail Marys and 5 Our Fathers.

BESIDES TAKING his golfing opponents to the cleaners, Father Scannell's presence also launders their vocabulary. They say at the Bing Crosby Tourney—at which the Father is a regular—Phil Harris actually sprouted wings. "Oh, darn and heck," Harris was heard to cry when an errant shot (golf) landed in the drink (ocean). Someone actually mistook Phil for a choir boy. Halo, Dolly!

THEN THERE was the time Harris carrying playmate Dean Martin out of a pub after a wild session and came across Father Scannell. Said Harris, "He ain't heavy, Father, he's my brother."

Anyway, if you're a spectator at next Sunday's

POP WARNER GRID SEASON OPEN

Pop Warner Football opened in Kentfield Saturday night with three games entertaining some 2,000 fans. In this action Clint Hubbard (13) of Drake Junior Pirates picked up three yards behind interference led by Dave McAusland (23). San Rafael defenders are Tom Brown (73), Gary Beeman (84) and Pat Parnow (31). Story on page 18. (Richard M. Smith photo)

THE IRISH ARE COMING

Sink Or Swim For Cal

Notre Dame and California, who boasted star passers a year ago each say they'll depend on position and possession Saturday when they battle in their collegiate football opener at Berkeley.

Gone from the Irish is Heisman Trophy winner John Huarte and gone from Cal is Craig Morton who rewrote the forward passing record books there in his three years as quarterback.

Notre Dame coach Ara Parseghian has decided on senior Bill Zloch to lead his club against California but the Bears mentor, Ray Willsey, hasn't decided among his two leading candidates.

Letterman Jim Hunt and junior college transfer Dan Berry have waged a near-even struggle all fall for the starting assignment.

Willsey told the Northern California Football Writers yesterday that he may not announce the starter until the day before the game.

Commenting on opening against the highly ranked Irish, Willsey commented, "We're in right up to our necks, but when you're in up to your neck, it makes you swim a little faster."

In this case, the swimming must be along the ground and Willsey has installed the slot T formation to give the Bears a better running attack. Unlike the Morton days, the quarterback also will be called upon as a ball carrier.

At Palo Alto, the Stanford Indians battle San Jose's Spartans in a game where both clubs have their 1964 quarterback returning and are counting on him.

Dave Lewis, who can pass, run and punt, directs the Stanford offense and is a big reason the Indians are ranked among the top clubs on the Pacific Coast.

Ken Berry leads the Spartan offense and makes up in scrambling ability what he lacks in size.

New coach Harry Anderson of San Jose has another Berry he's counting on. Tackle Brent Berry from Cupertino will play on both offense and defense and should be the line anchor for the Spartans this year.

"In certain spots we have good personnel but in others they are untried," Anderson told the writers.

He has solid running ability in John Travis and Charley Harraway to augment Ken Berry's passing.

Ralston also has a veteran backfield crew with Ray Handley, John Read and Bob Blunt. Read, said the coach, turned in an outstanding performance in last Staurday's scrimmage.

WATERS, DEAN AND NOW . . .

Burke Latest 49er To Go

End Vern Burke, former Oregon State star, was released on waivers by the San Francisco 49ers Tuesday bringing the club to its National Football League squad limit of 40.

Burke was drafted as a red shirt on the fifth round in 1962 and joined the club last year. He suffered a knee injury in a preseason game and saw no more action.

Two popular veterans got the axe yesterday when defensive end Floyd Dean and defensive back Bobby Waters were handed their walking papers. Both had been hampered by a row of injuries this year.

Meanwhile, coach Jack Christiansen complained about reports he had "walked out" on his players after their 34-14 exhibition drubbing by Los Angeles.

"I didn't walk out on the players," the coach said yesterday, "I walked out on the press. They know they're supposed to give us 10 to 15 minutes before coming into the room."

After watching films of Sunday's loss, he said 'our middle defense, the two tackles and middle backer, had its worst game. These fellows have been our strong men in the past."

He said that the pass defense seemed leakier than it really was because of a couple of missed assignments on key plays, but he also conceded "our whole team was soft. We weren't ready to play or to hit —that's it."

St. Vincent's Grid Team Scores Win

St. Vincent's School for Boys edged Fort Bragg 6-0 Sunday in Pop Warner football action on the winners' field. The game's lone touchdown came when Larry Robinson blocked a Fort Bragg punt and Paul Hansen fell on the ball in the end zone.

Giants Continue Drive For Flag

COMBINED AP & UPI

HOUSTON, Tex.—Willie Mays collected only one hit last night against the Astros.

"It was a fast ball," the San Francisco Giants' star said, "and I thought I hit it good."

Pretty good. It dropped into the center field seats about 410 feet from home plate—Willie's 500th home run in his major league career.

The fourth-inning homer tied the game 1-1 and ignited the Giants, who added three more runs and went on to win their 11th straight game — and Juan Marichal's 22nd of the year — 5-1. The victory also increased their National League lead over the idle Los Angeles Dodgers to 2½ games.

It was Willie's 47th four-bagger this year.

"I wasn't even looking to get 500 this year, to tell you the truth," Willie said after the game.

Did he know he was only 11 short of Mel Ott's National League record?

"Sure, I know that."

When did he check it?

"I don't have to check on it. I just know it."

He then proceeded to rattle off the career home run records of Jimmy Foxx, 534, and Ted Williams, 526, and the king of them all, Babe Ruth, 714.

"I'll have to average 40 a year to catch up with that guy (Ruth)," said Willie, who is 34. "I don't think I can do it."

The man who served up Willie's first home run ball in 1951, Warren Spahn, now with the Giants, was dressing nearby.

Spahn, then with the Braves, recalled the pitch as if it were one he had thrown yesterday, not 14 years ago.

"I knew it was a pitch he had to hit," Spahn said. "It was a cruve ball on the outer part of the plate — which is where they told us to pitch him."

But then Spahn and Mays started a friendly argument over whether it was a day or a night game, Willie maintaining it was the latter. And Spahn said Willie had gone 0-for-21 before the homer, not 0-for-12, as Willie said.

Willie praised Spahn's longevity. "There I was, a rookie up from Minneapolis," he said. "And here that guy's still pitching."

Asked what he thought his chances were of having several more big years of home runs, Willie said:

"I don't know. I need a rest occasionally. That hurts your

Sandy Is Getting The Hang Of It

There was this night when we were sitting around trying to imagine what would happen if a lot of history's characters had had Jewish mothers. Like, "My Son, the Traitor" (Benedict Arnold's mother); "My Son, the Ape" (Tarzan's mother); "My Son, the Doctor and Mr. Hyde" (Dr. Jekyll's mother).

There could be a "My Son, the Channel Swimmer," "My son, the Bullfighter," "My son, the Spy." But all of us overlooked the most obvious one of all; "My Son, the No-Hitter Pitcher" (Sandy Koufax's mother).

There's an old saying that when a thing happens once, it's an accident. Twice, it's a trend. Three times, and it's a habit. Four times, and it's a rut.

Sandy Koufax is in a rut. A no-hit rut. Every year, as regularly as summer, he pitches a no-hit game. There have been 160 no-hit games in major league history. If Sandy Koufax had stuck to architecture ("My Son, the Planner"), there would only be 146 of them. The only way he could improve now is to pitch so well some night the other team ends with a minus-two. He has now added a "perfect" game to go with his first three mere no-hitters. He's getting the hang of the thing.

A PATTERN has now been established for a Sandy Koufax no-hitter which is getting as recognizable to aficionados as a Rembrandt, a Picasso, or a Warhol. It has to (1) be night; (2) have Eddie Vargo umpiring behind the plate; and (3) have Harvey Kuenn as the last batter. The opposing team doesn't matter. There have now been four different ones. When Sandy's fast ball is crackling it could be the 1927 Yankees—or the 1914 German Army for all of that.

IN HIS merry book, "Now Wait a Minute, Casey!" the New York Post's Maury Allen alluded to a jingle the Manhattan baseball writers sang at their annual dinner, "Sandy, You're a Dandy, You're a Jewish Walter Johnson." But now that Sandy has thrown his fourth no-hitter, the chances are better that Walter Johnson (one measly lifetime no-hitter) may come to be known as the Gentile Sandy Koufax. And don't forget Walter Johnson could pitch on Rosh Hashanah.

When Sandy first came up to the Dodgers, it was the private guess of most that, if he ever went down in history as the game's foremost no-hitter, it it would be with the bat. There is a prevailing opinion that Sandy, as a human being, is almost too good to be true—and I have never seen him do anything to dispute it. But, when he first took a pitcher's mound, he was too true to be good. If he hit anybody with a baseball, it was an accident. If Don Drysdale missed anybody, it was an accident.

THE INCIDENT in Candlestick Park last month served the purpose of illustration. It was before Juan (The Enforcer) Marichal (one lifetime no-hitter) had taken, so to speak, his cuts with the bat (the cuts, by the way, bled) but he knocked down two Dodger batters.

When Willie Mays came up, everybody in the ballpark (including Willie) knew the first pitch was going to be a ball—high and inside, way inside. Willie knew if he lingered in the batter's box he would have two lumps in his throat—one of them with Warren Giles' signature on it. He started to run out of the batter's box before the jewish Walter Johnson completed his windup. He need not have worried. Like the other Walter Johnson, this one doesn't believe in attempted murder—with a ball or bat. The pitch was more of a threat to a low-flying jet than to Willie Mays.

OF COURSE, someone recently checked into the myth that the real Walter Johnson never brushed a batter back because he was afraid he would kill him, and found to his dismay that Walter led the world in hit batsmen—a cool 204 in his lifetime. This puts him almost 200 ahead of Sandy Koufax. That may be the only department he will lead Sandy in when Sandy finally goes back to the drawing board.

As teammate Don Drysdale said the other night when Sandy came in from his annual no-hit game, "Do you think they'll take the uniform off him before they bronze it or will they leave him in it?"

CONTENDERS FALL IN N.L. RACE

Streakin' Deacon Jolts Cincy Hopes

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Vernon "Deacon" Law lost his first five games, won the next eight, lost five more and won his last nine. A streaky season?

Not according to the veteran Pittsburgh Pirate right-hander.

"I don't believe in streaks," Law said after beating Cincinnati 8-4 yesterday for his latest triumph, knocking the Reds 3½ games behind the Giants.

The word streak when used in connection with a sport signifies that a player or team is playing either poorly or good.

But to Law's way of thinking, this often is not the case.

He feels he pitched just as well in some of his losses this year as he has in many of his victories. The record shows the Pirates scored just five runs for him in his first five losses.

"I think momentum is a big thing, however," Law said. "If your ball club is playing good and you're pitching well, you have an excellent chance to win."

During Law's five-loss streak, the Pirates lost 20 of 26. But while he was winning 17 of his next 21 decisions, the Pirates were playing at a .608 clip — 70-45.

For a time yesterday it looked as if Law's latest streak, or whatever you want to call it, was going to end.

Making his first start since Sept. 1 — he was out with a strained right elbow — he was touched for four runs in the first inning. But his mates rallied for five runs in the first two innings for the lead, and Law held the Reds to just three hits the rest of the way.

He said his right elbow didn't bother him.

"I was missing with my pitches and then I was down the middle with them," he said of his first inning difficulty. "It's disgusting, I'll tell you.

"I'm glad the boys got me a few runs. I'm glad he (Manager Harry Walker) stuck with me because that makes me feel good."

Law still could return to the 20-game victory circle where he was in 1960, his best year before he was hit with arm trouble.

But do to it, he'll have to keep that thing going.

While the Giants took care of Houston last night, another contender suffered a jolt when the fourth-place Milwaukee Braves lost to Philadelphia, 4-3, dropping 5 games off the pace.

Clay Dalrymple's seventh inning homer snapped a 3-3 deadlock and gave the Phillis their fifth straight triumph.

chances to catch the record. Sure (Stan) Musial played until he was 43. But he wasn't hitting 50 home runs a year, and he wasn't playing but about 100 games a year."

Willie was anxious that no pressure be brought on Mrs. Sallie B. Norman of Houston, who retrieved the 500th home run ball.

"Don't make her look bad," he said. "Don't make her do nothing. It's hers and she can do what she wants."

Monday's crowd of 19,827 at the Astrodome pushed Houston's home attendance to within 9,349 of the 2 million mark, which has been broken by only four other teams: the Los Angeles Dodgers, Milwaukee Braves, Cleveland Indians and New York Yankees.

In tonight's rematch under the Astrodome roof, Ron Herbel (10-7) squares off against Huston's Bob Bruce)9-18).

There was only a light schedule in the National League Monday, but it was still a great day for the Giants, who now lead second place Los Angeles by 2½ games. Cincinnati lost to fall 3½ back and Milwaukee stumbled to fall 5 full games off the pace in fourth.

The Astros jumped off to a 1-0 lead in the first last night when Jim Wynn smacked his 21st homer, but Marichal breezed to the 8-hit triumph from there to run his record to a solid 22-10. Juan was also the hottest Giant hitter.

Mays ignited a four-run rally off loser Don Nottebart in the fourth with his 500th homer.

Willie McCovey followed Mays's circuit clout with a walk and Jim Hart doubled him to third. Len Gabrielson walked and Tom Haller's infield out scored a run and advanced the runners. Hal Lanier was walked to fill up the bases and Marichal singled in the third Giant tally. Dick Schofield's sacrifice fly brought home a fourth run.

In the sixth, Haller singled off reliever Dave Guisti and Marichal unloaded a triple.

After the game, a relaxed Mays emphasized to newsmen that he likes the records but "as long as we keep winning, that's all I care."

Big O Threatens To Quit Cincy– Pay Squabble

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Basketball s tar Oscar Robertson said if he doesn't get a new contract with a raise he may end his National Basketball Association career with the Cincinnati Royals.

"If I can't get my contract, I don't intend to play here," Robertson said. "I feel this is what I have to do."

Robertson said Monday he will not report for the Royals' preseason practice, which begins today, until he gets a salary increase. He reportedly was paid around $60,000 last year.

Robertson said, "There is a stalemate in our negotiations and the way things stand now, I intend to be a holdout. I won't report if I don't have a contract."

1965 Season Opens At Bay Meadows

SAN MATEO (AP) — An 83-day thoroughbred horse race meeting will open tomorrow at Bay Meadows featuring 21 stakes with $315,000 in added money.

The first 34 days of the lengthy fall session will be for Tanforan with the remaining 49 under the auspices of the California Jockey Club which operats Bay Meadows.

A majority of the 1,450 horses allotted stalls will come from Del Mar. A record 2,300 applications were processed and even though two new barns were built during a $500,000 revamping program at the track, not all the applications could be alloted stalls. Only horses quartered on the grounds will be allowed to race.

The turf club, club house and grandstand areas have been redecorated.

Scottish Golf Course Planned At Mountain Fair

There will be a Scottish golf course as one feature of the annual Mountain Fair to be held by Muir Woods Improvement Assn. Oct. 9 and 10 at the clubhouse off Panoramic at Ridge Avenue.

The course is being built and designed by William Rice, club president.

Other entertainment for the fair which runs from 11 a.m. to midnight on Saturday and 11 a.m. to 8 p.m., Sunday includes the international folk dancing group on Sunday, an international puppet show presented by Kelly Morris and Shirley Cook of the club, and dancing by two Tahitian dancers.

Awards Fete Little Leaguers

"Awards Night" for Marinwood-Lucas Valley Little Leaguers and their parents will be Friday, 8 p.m., at the Marinwood Community Center.

League president Bob Robertson, assisted by the board of directors, will present plaques to the Major League (Giants) and Minor League (Mets) champions, and medals to the Farm League Champs (Dodgers). Certificates will be presented to the 43 boys who have completed their last season.

Immediately following the presentation of awards, the annual general meeting of the league will be held to elect new directors for the 1966 season. Robertson invited all interested persons to attend.

The FISHIN' FOOL

The Lull Before The Storm? Live Bait Trollers Score

STEVENS

There is usually a lull before a storm, so if applied to fishing locally, an optimist would say: "Fishin's just around the corner." Certainly there is a basis for that opinion. The boats trolling live bait in the Racoon Strait the past few days have been registering in with a lot of nice bass—the lads in outboard skiffs have more or less of a field day on Saturday and Sunday. Live baiters have taken a toll from the Alcatraz sector also. Tony Caruso of Caruso's harbor at Sausalito mentioned that for most anglers the action was "Red hot, Ralph." Tony also lamented the take of salmon. "Some fish were taken, of course, but the action has slowed a lot," he said, and added that many of the old timers believe the former large schools of salmon have started their annual trek upstream in the rivers.

I ASKED Caruso about the deep sea rock-fishing boat, Ki-ha-ku. He reported that as usual this boat with Ray Batho at the helm has been taking limits of assorted rockfish along with some nice lings. For your information, the Ki-ha-ku goes out on Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays. The fee is $10 per rod and your best bet to go out with Ray Batho is to call for a reservation any evening.

AS ALWAYS there are exceptions to the rule. From Lee Anderson's shop in Oakland I learned that the boat Chinook netted 9 salmon to 32 pounds on Saturday, The Lucky Day No. 2 had 4 to 22 pounds and the Privateer had 3 salmon to 22 pounds, 22 ling cod and 11 limits of assorted rockfish — in the Point Reyes area. And, to bolster the opinion of the optimists, the boat R.S.P. landed 7 limits of stripers to 16 pounds off Alcatraz. The Millie Len had four bass from 16 to 22 pounds, and the Duke II had 2 halibuts to 22 pounds and 2 bass to 20 pounds off Seal Rock. The catches were made on Saturday. On Friday The Sea Horse with 7 limits of striped bass to 24 pounds.

WHILE THE bass reports of incoming fish is a big promise of happy days to come in all sectors, the San Pablo Bay spots remain nearly non-productive. A good example of that is the report from China Camp, where I was told that one boat came in on Saturday with one bass to 16 inches and 2 flounders. "They are catching a lot of green-eyed sharks, but few if any leopards," was the word.

UPSTREAM THE sturgeon fishing has taken an upswing with some very hefty specimens being landed. Charlie Schmelz, of Dowrelio's Crockett harbor reported Arnie Savage on the Dowrelio No. 5 docking with 4 sturgeon to 93 pounds. Johnny Sivera on the Happy Days brought in sturgeon with a 94 pound specimen among the lot. (Bass fishing has been very very slow out of Crockett.) Speaking of sturgeon, Suetta Lagrone of Dillon's Point above the Carquinez Bridge registered in one that weighed 80 pounds not long ago. Also the plug casters along the shore at Dillon's Point have been doing a fair to good job of bass catching. On Saturday a striper of 14½ pounds and one that weighed 22½ pounds were takn on the old favorite plug, the Creek Chub 703.

SEEMS LIKE the action for plug casters at Dillon's Point has shifted—used to be mainly on the outgoing tide, lately, though, it has been the incoming tide that paid off. The bait fishermen at Dillon's Point have been doing fairly well on somewhat smaller fish, 3 to 10 pounders, while using grass shrimp and pile worms.

So, that's another report. Goodbye. Good luck and go get 'em!

Cole Bags Sixth Win Of Season

Ron Cole won his sixth game of the season and dropped his earned run average to 2.79 and John Boccabella batted .600 for the week in their closing days in the minor leagues, it was reported today by Player Periscope of Novato.

Cole, of Mill Valley, now has a 6-2 record for Durham, N.C. of the Class A Carolina League. The Houston Astros minor leaguer pitched in three games for a total of eight innings of relief work for the last reported week. He fanned 8, walked 2 and allowed 7 hits during that span.

Boccabella, the slugging first baseman from San Anselmo, was called up to the parent Chicago Cubs last week after closing out his season with Fort Worth of the Class AA Texas League. Just before being called up, John hit safely 9 times in 15 at bats, including 2 homers and three doubles good for 6 runs batted in, during the last reported week.

Big Task For New Terra Linda Coach

(Sixth in a series on Marin Athletic League football prospects.)

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Brad Squires will be making his debut as Terra Linda High School head coach Friday when he leads his gang against Clayton Valley in the opening game of the season for both schools.

Squires is taking over for Pete Limm, who has moved up to College of Marin to teach and coach the game's defensive phase for the Tars. The new head man for the Trojan gridders has been coaching for more than 15 years, but most of that time as assistant coach.

He was line coach under Limm for two years, and before that coached in Illinois, then Elk Grove, and a year at San Rafael High. In addition to his coaching duties, Squires teaches U.S. history, American government, and contemporary history.

It's a rough time to take over the reins at Terra Linda, for the Trojans fans will expect a lot of wins, since T.L. won eight of its nine games last year, losing only to Drake in the season finale.

But most of the key men of that team have been graduated, leaving five first string lettermen to head the list for '65. Although the five gridders specialized in offense or defense last year, they'll probably be going both ways this time.

Squires doesn't hide the fact the team will have its troubles early in the season because "we're decidedly an inexperienced ball club."

John Clifford is the lone offensive back returning among the crop of lettermen. He carried the ball only 25 times last year for Terra Linda but gained 190 big yards, giving him the best average per carry among the league's top runners, 7.6. He was third top runner for the team, but was No. 9 in the league. He stands 5-10 and weighs 155.

Jim Crisp (6-0, 210) should be the key man in Terra Linda's defense at one of the linebacker spots. He was named all-league last season as a junior so he should have a big year this season also, especially since he's picked up about 20 pounds.

The other three lettermen are tackle David Dukes (6-0, 180), defensive back Craig Hill (5-7, 150), and end John Forry (5-10, 165). All five lettermen are seniors.

It's going to be hard to fit the shoes left by Trojan quarterback Gary Lieberman, who was the big passer for the team. Terra Linda will not be a big outfit, so the passing game again will have to be a key to its offense. The halfbacks out for the team are inexperienced and will need some seasoning before posing a big threat on the ground.

Sidney Norman looks like the No. 1 quarterback for Terra Linda, although he is tiny compared to some of the big bruisers who'll be chasing him around. He is 5-6 and weighs in at 135 pounds. Backing him up will be another senior, Terry Johnson (5-6, 150), and junior signal caller Paul Lee (5-10, 155). Paul's older brother, Bill, was quite an athlete when he went to Terra Linda High.

As was the case last year, Terra Linda will have to rely on speed rather than power because of the team's lack of size. Among the heftier boys is tackle Brian Perron. He played defense last year but will probably be a starting offensive tackle this season. He weighs 190. Terry Sthymmel has been impressive at one of the guard spots, although he is only 165 pounds.

Forry is the lone end with any experience to speak of, but Pat McCusker on offense and Ron Laufer on defense will be regulars for the Trojans. Both played a little varsity last year.

Jack Baken has a good chance of landing a berth as starting fullback, for he saw a small amount of action last year. But Squires has been experimenting with Crisp as a fullback, and with his size it could be a big point in the Trojans' ground game.

Squires feels that Novato, Drake and San Rafael should be the top contenders for championship honors, with Redwood a dark horse.

Both practice games for the Trojans before the start of the league season will be played at San Rafael High School's field, as will all their home league games. Friday's game against Clayton Valley will start at 8 p.m., and then comes Ukiah on Oct. 24, also at 8 p.m.

Both practice games should be good scraps for Terra Linda. That'll be the time for this team to find out just where it stands in hopes of matching the 1964 season record.

Schedule for Terra Linda:
Friday, Sept. 17—Clayton Valley, 8 p.m.
Friday, Sept. 24—Ukiah, 8 p.m.
Saturday, Oct. 2—At Novato, 2 p.m.*
Saturday, Oct. 9—Marin Catholic, 8 p.m.*
Friday, Oct. 15—Redwood, 8 p.m.*
Friday, Oct. 22—San Rafael, 8 p.m.*
Friday, Oct. 29—At Manteca, 8 p.m.
Friday, Nov. 5—Drake at Kentfield, 8 p.m.*
Friday, Nov. 12—Tamalpais, 8 p.m.*
*—denotes league games.

first stringers currently out from two days to four weeks. Those involved are: Stan Tobiason, pulled ligaments; Dan Salata, pulled muscle; Bill Dunn, broken hand; Dan Kreps, infection; Trevor Benedict, virus, and Bill McNamara, bruised arm. "I hope all the injuries have now hit us and they will be over when the league starts," Troppmann moaned.

San Rafael only held a light workout with the players going through plays in gym shorts. Coach Bob Muster is trying to heal a few injuries before the Bulldogs meet McClymonds this Friday. Muster emphasized the kicking game and from Saturday's competition it looks like Tom Gagan has the inside track over Sam Crowell. As for injured quarterback Jay Widmar, who started most of last year's games, Muster was glum. "I'm not sure he'll play at all because of the injury," said Muster. Fighting for the signal calling job are Bill Joost and Roger Widmar, both juniors.

New coach Brad Squires of Terra Linda felt his defense was strong at the Trojan's scrimmage. Senior Sir Norman has tentatively been named the starting quarterback but Terry Johnson is pressing. The big question in the Trojan camp is whether John Forry, a starting end last season can make a successful change to the slot back spot in the backfield. "He hasn't learned the position completely yet, but he does run quite well and we're going slowly with him," Squires commented.

Terra Linda's first opponet is Clayton Valley this Friday night at San Rafael.

Marin Catholic coach Charles Vaughn was happy that end John Komo was ready for practice after being sidelined for five days with a kene injury. The Wildcats held their annual picture day for the school program and then Vaughn worked them on play pattern. Tom Murray, with a shoulder, bruise Stan Hardeman, virus, and Don Knead, bad shoulder, are in sickbay, according to Vaughn.

Willie Hector, Tamalpais's new coach, was highly optimistic after the team's scrimmage. "I got two fine split ends for the type of offense I'm using in Mike Biber and Steve Reiter," said Hector. Also mentioned by Hector as a bright spot on defense were Gary Cotton at linebacker and Gary Stevens at tackle.

Learning A Trade In Prison

Trade Fair Scheduled Thursday

Story and Photos
By ALAN M. ADELSON

The inmate vocational training program at San Quentin Prison will go on display Thursday when the second annual prison trade fair opens to 2,000 invited guests from business, labor, and industry.

The fair, which drew more than 350 people last year, will be greatly expanded because of tremendous interest in the prison's vocational program, according to Lester E. Ecke, trade fair co-ordinator.

The fair will open at 6:30 p.m.

The prison's dozen shops will be manned with 125 inmates, running the machines which they have been trained to use while in prison.

The guests will see: men repairing shoes in the prison cobbler shop; the prison newspaper and state business forms being printed in the print shop; prison library books being rebound in the book bindery; desks and chairs to be used in state offices being built or repaired in the prison carpentry shop; state-owned automobiles being repaired in the auto body and engine shops; laundering of inmates' clothes in the prison laundry; sheet metal equipment being made for use in the prison; and state-owned office machinery being repaired in the business machine shop.

In addition, corsages made in the landscaping shop will be distributed to women guests, French pastries will be available for sampling in the prison bakery, and several of the cows from the prison's prize-winning dairy herd will be on display.

"We want to show the outside community that we are working here, and receiving good vocational training while we're in prison," said Charles E. Turville Jr., 30, inmate chairman of the trades fair committee.

Turville arrived at San Quentin in August of 1957, condemned to death for killing a lawyer in Los Angeles County. He came within a day of execution when he received a reprieve from Gov. Goodwin J. Knight on Sept. 3, 1957. Subsequently the death sentence was commuted and he is now sentenced to life in prison without parole.

"I've learned a lot about the trades since I came here, and it's going to help me make a solid life if I ever get paroled," said Turville, who's hoping to be paroled eventually by act of the state legislature.

The prison vocational program is a certified training program leading to the awarding of journeyman certificates to men who fulfill the required 4,000 hours of apprenticeship training, said Ecke, who oversees the vocational training at the prison.

When the men get out of prison, the journeyman's certificate is awarded to them through College of Marin. It makes no mention of their time spent in the prison.

"That's really important because then we can go where we want on release and know we'll be able to get a job without having to have the blemish of our prison records showing from the very start," said Bruce C. Gray, 37, chairman of the inmate vocational trades council.

If the inmates are not in the prison long enough to complete the program and get journeyman's certificates, credit for the hours they have completed is transferred to a vocational training school in the area where where they live. "The probation authorities see that they are placed in a program where they will go on with their training," said Ecke.

The value of the prison's vocational training is shown by the number of men who have participated in the program who return to the prison after release. Only 15 per cent of its "graduates" are re-imprisoned compared to a prison average of 50 per cent.

The vocational program, according to state requirements, is very selective in choosing the inmates who will be admitted into it. Only 350 out of the prison's 3,600 prisoners participate in the program. They must go through a careful screening period first in which their vocational aptitudes, academic proficiency, dexterity, and basic personalities are researched.

Unlike the prison arts and crafts show, the trade fair is not open to the public. "We couldn't possibly do that at this time," said Ecke.

ONCE-DOOMED MACHINISTS — Charles E. Turville Jr., trades fair committee chairman, looks up from his work on a milling machine in the San Quentin Prison machine shop. Turville was convicted of killing a Los Angeles lawyer in 1957 and came within one day of execution before he received a reprieve and eventually a commutation of his death sentence.

BOOTH MAKER—Sanding a plank for one of the many booths to be used in the coming San Quentin Trades Fair is Shelby L. Hodges, a member of the trade exploratory class. Prison inmates are put into this class to determine their vocational abilities before they are allowed to enroll in an intensive vocational program in one of the prison's many other shops.

LIKE NEW—Inspecting a recently rejuvenated automobile before it is sold at public auction are Lester E. Ecke, head of San Quentin Prison's vocational training program, and Jan Soone, instructor in the prison auto body and fender shop. This car, like many others, was used by the state for several years and then turned over to the prison engine and auto body shops for restoration.

Bribe Charge For Assessor In Alameda

OAKLAND (AP) — Alameda County Assessor Donald E. Feragen is to appear for arraignment Oct. 4 on charges of accepting more than $12,000 in bribes.

Feragan was fingerprinted, photographed and booked yesterday on grand jury charges that he accepted money for alleged recution of property tax assessments. He then was released on bail.

Superior Court Judge Lewis E. Lercara reduced Feragen's bail from $10,000 to $2,750 at the request of defense attorney Herman W. Mintz.

Deputy Dist Atty. Frank Vukota objected strongly to the reduction of the bail. "He may go to Switzerland for all I know," Vukota said.

Two of Feragen's aides have also been indicted by the Alameda County Grand Jury and have been booked.

Earle Parrish, Supervising auditor-appraiser, was charged jointly with Feragan on two bribery counts. Parrish was also charged with grand theft.

The grand jury said Feragen and Parrish together received an additional $2,000 in payoffs.

Michael J. McLaughlin, auditor-appraiser, was accused of taking $2,679 in bribes to influence Feragen to reduce the personal property taxes of clients of Castro Valley tax advisor James C. Tooke.

Wheels Taken

Neil E. White Jr. of 332 Williams Avenue, Larkspur, told Corte Madera police Sunday that someone stole two rear wheels from his car, parked behind the Corte Madera Recreation Center during a Saturday night dance. He said the wheels are worth $150.

Farm Produce Sellers Ruled Not Exempted

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The attorney general's office has ruled that a person who buys farm produce from farmers and sells the same at retail, at a permanent stall in one of the numerous country auction centers, is not exempted from the Produce Dealers Licensing Act.

The opinion said retail merchants were exempted from the act but it was clear that merchants occupying a permanent structure on a temporary arrangement would not be exempted.

THE SUBURBAN SCENE

Two-Fold Farewell Given By Hartmans

By MOLLY MARIN

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Hartman were hosts at a cocktail party for 100 guests Saturday evening at their home in Mill Valley honoring their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Kostic.

The Kostics, who have been living in Mill Valley, will move Saturday to Santa Ana, where Tom, who now has a law degree from Boalt Law School of the University of California, will be associated with a law firm. The Hartmans' son, Lt. John Nicholas Hartman of the U.S. Navy, who has been stationed at Pearl Harbor, was present. He will be going to Viet Nam in October.

MRS. ALEXANDER TARICS returns to Belvedere today (Tuesday) from a month in Hungary, just in time to put the finishing touches on wedding preparations for the marriage Saturday of the Tarics' daughter, Esther, to Richard Scull Stauffer Jr., of York Pa. Nellie Tarics, a native of Hungary, had left that country as a young girl during World War II. Four years ago she tried to visit her grandmother in Budapest, but was not permitted to enter Hungary, so a compromise meeting was arranged in Vienna. This summer Nellie was able to spend four weeks in Budapest and the surrounding region, renewing family ties, and enjoying an extended stay with her 80-year-old grandmother.

ESTHER'S fiance arrived in Belvedere last weekend. An untimely back injury suffered by the prospective bridegroom's father prevents his parents, the senior Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scull Stauffer, from coming West for the nuptials. Richard's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jhn W. Spurdle Jr. of Rumsan, N.J., will be in Marin later this week, representing the family.

MRS. ROY M. Johnston Jr. has just returned from Del Mar and La Jolla, where she visited her long-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hawn of Dallas at their beach home in Del Mar. They attended the races daily as the Hawn stables were running many of their horses. Mr. Hawn is chairman of the board of directors of the Del Mar Race Track. Lisa returned just in time to move into the Johnston's new home at 19 Winged Foot Dr., Marin Country Club Estates.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM WEISSICH of San Rafael left yesterday on a six weeks' trip to Europe with London as their first stop. They expect to meet Marinites Judge and Mrs. Charles Brusatori in Berlin and will stop in Rome, Venice, Naples, Florence, Hanover and Copenhagen as well.

THE THEODORE Steigers just returned to Tiburon after a late summer stay in Twain Harte. Ann Steiger got back just in time to model in the Corinthian Yacht Club's fashion show Friday afternoon.

JOHN FINN III of Mill Valley, his wife Parnel and daughter Ferris returned last week from a vacation that included New York City, Bermuda, Port Everglades, Fla., Nassau, the Panama Canal, Los Angeles and Disneyland.

While in New York they saw the musicals "Funny Girl" and "Baker Street," took Ferris to the Latin Quarter and attended the fair.

Ferris was so taken with shipboard life on the S.S. Oriana, which they boarded at Bermuda, she decided she wouldn't mind getting a job on a liner. John Finn presented the banner of the Mill Valley Rotary Club to Commodore Edgecombe at a meeting of the international organization one afternoon on the Oriana, and he carried the ship's banner back to the Mill Valley Chapter.

THE HARRY LUTGENS of San Rafael have been entertaining at their home before they leave for Chicago next month.

Gary Asleson Claims Bride, Carol Cervelli, On Crutches

Carol Cervelli, daughter of Mr. and Mr. M. C. Cervelli of San Anselmo became the bride of Gary Asleson of Fairfax, at St. Anselm's Church in Ross at 2 p.m. on Sept. 5. The bridegroom, due to an accident involving an automobile, walked down the aisle with the aid of crutches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father in the double ring ceremony, wore a full length gown of crystalline trimmed in Chantilly lace accented with seed pearls and sequins. Linda Majeski of San Anselmo wore a full length gown of lilac sheer over taffeta as maid of honor. Roseann Pontasuglio of San Mateo, Lonnie Cordone of Woodacre, Kathy Trueman of San Rafael and Jackie Bush of San Anselmo wore similar dresses as bridesmaids.

Julie Evans of Fontana was flower girl and Eugene Guiliani of San Anselmo was ringbearer. Don Howard of Fairfax acted as best man with John Croce and Richard Pace of Fairfax, Paul Molonari and Ron Asleson, brother of the bridegroom, both of San Anselmo, as ushers.

A reception was held at Peacock Gap Country Club.

The bride attended Sir Francis Drake High School, College of Marin and was graduated from Marinello Beauty School. She is employed at B'June Beauty Salon.

Gary is the son of Mr. and Mr. Hebert Asleson of Fontana and the brother of Wayne and Dennis Asleson of Fontana and Mrs. Janice Evans, also of Fontana.

The couple are residing in Fairfax.

Duplicate Bridge Classes To Open

If you play "party bridge" but want to try duplicate, here's your chance.

Five sessions of bridge, duplicate style, will be offered for beginners, starting Sept. 20.

Mrs. James C. Myers of Kentfield, instructor, announced that the classes will run for five consecutive Mondays, 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the Northgate Building, Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross. The course will involve actual duplicate play, with a 15—minute period of instruction.

Instructions in intermediate bridge will be offered for eight weeks, starting Sept. 21. This will be from 10 a.m. to noon for eight consecutive Tuesdays. The course covers bidding, play and defense.

Mrs. Myers, a life master, teaches the Charles Goren system.

Tom Thumb's Starlight Ball To Be Set In Fantasy Land

The winsome figure of Grimm's "Tom Thumb" will transform the Meadow Club into a fairytale fantasy land when the Tom Thumb Chapter of the Children's Home Society presents its annual Starlight Ball on Saturday evening.

Decorations chairman Mrs. Donald Harper has created cartoon figures of the little man with his needle and thimble to decorate the foyer, tables and bandstand.

Guests will be greeted by Mrs. David Dixon, chapter president, and Mrs. Don Nissen, dance chairman.

The evening will begin with a cocktail hour at 7:30 p.m., followed by dinner and dancing to the music of an orchestra.

Other members of the dance committee include Mesdames William Kaffer, reservations; Russell Wardlaw, invitations; Kelly Wheeler, awards, and John Moody, publicity.

Church Women To Hold Tea

Women's Fellowship of the Community Congregational Church of Belvedere - Tiburon will hold a membership tea at the new church, 175 Rock Hill Rd., Tiburon, tomorrow.

Mrs. David Imrie, newly elected president and Mrs. Merritt Mason, retiring president, have been asked to pour. Mrs. Herbert Spillman and Mrs. Marcel Ehrer will be assisting at the tea.

El Marinero To Hear Talk On 27 Original Counties

"California's Original Counties" will be the subject of a talk by Mrs. James D. Haley of Berkeley at the opening fall meeting of El Marinero Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, to be held on Monday at the Greenbrae home of Mrs. Richard E. Mittelstaedt.

Her talk will be accompanied by picture slides, featuring the first 27 counties of the Golden State ,and giving highlights of early California history.

Co-hostesses for the noon luncheon will be Mesdames Gerhard Becker, Kenneth R. Gregory, William A. Marcus and Julian Rice.

Members of the local chapter who are making preparations for the Northern Council meeting of the California State Society DAR on Sept. 24 at Peacock Gap Country Club, are Dr. Eugenia M. Campbell, hospitality; and Mesdames Henri M. Boussy, decorations; Harold E. Mickens, favors and Lesile Stanley, music.

Indonesian Party Set For Saturday

The Dick Rudolphs, who sponsored the big Dutch-Indonesian party in 1962 at the American Legion Hall in Mill Valley, will have another gala occasion — a tropical dinner dance—on Saturday at the Legion Hall.

Indonesian cuisine and beverages will be featured. The party will start at 7:30 p.m. and continue with music for dancing provided by the "Orkes Merdu" band led by Charles Lefebre. Begun as a hobby a year ago, the band plays mostly for Dutch-Indonesian affairs in the Bay Area.

Proceeds from the party will be used partly for band uniforms and to help with the expenses of bringing three young people from Haiti to Marin.

The Rudolphs and their daughter, Inge, who were refugees themselves from Indonesia, were assisted in coming to this country from Holland in 1961 by Mill Valley's Episcopal Church of Our Saviour. Having received such help, they wanted to assist the Celidor family to come to the United States from Haiti. The young people, a 20-year-old and a 16-year-old girl and a 19-year-old boy, will arrive in Marin the night before the party and will stay with Maggi Walker of Larkspur, who helped their father and aunt to come here first. The mother and a younger child will come later.

Reservations are made with the Rudolphs, who live at 55 Marinero Circle, Tiburon.

Many Attend AAUW Unit's Sunday Tea

Thirty-four prospective members attended the tea Sunday at the home of Mrs. A. J. Brinckerhoff, sponsored by the Novato Branch of the American Assn. of University Women.

Prospective members included the Mesdames Vincent De Bellis, Thomas Bishop, William Eckhoff, Johnny Gentry, Ashton L. Hutchkins, John Johnston, Joseph Joslin, David Le Fevre, David Parrish, Floyd Oliver, Rex Rolle, Myron Staab, Edmund Swan, Hal Hendricks, E. O. Leigon, William Leigh, James Ault, George Romero and Wilfred Spence.

And Mesdames Gilbert Guerin, William Schneeflock, Henry Hicks, David Hansell, John Colistra, Larry Marks, Albert Fong, Anne Brereton, David Matson and Marie Anderson and Misses Jo Anne Chilson, Louise De Lorimier, Gloria Markowitz, Bette Reese and Linda Sterpenig.

Omicron Alpha Meets Tonight

Members of Omicron Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi in Mill Valley will welcome two new members at the first meeting of the season tonight at 8 p.m. in the Corte Madera home of Mrs. William Bobzien.

Mrs. Donald Pendarvis of Fort Barry and Mrs. Robert Martin of Mill Valley will be introduced by president Mrs. Robert Haluska. Mrs. Pendarvis was a member of Beta Sigma Phi in Albuquerque, and Mrs. Martin was a member in Modesto.

Programs will be given by Mrs. Raymond Preslar of Kentfield and Mrs. Donald Sutherland of Corte Madera.

Nursery School Parents To Hear Director Speak

Belvedere and Tiburon Nursery schools open on Sept. 20, with nursery school sessions held in the morning and prekindergarten in the afternoon.

Mrs. Beverly Bastian, executive director, will address parents of both schools at a meeting at 8 p.m. tonight at the Tiburon Nursery School. Her topic is "Educational Philosophy and Policies in the Nursery School Today."

Staff members are Mrs. Barbara Ryall, principal, Belvedere; Mrs. Margaret Simpson, principal, Tiburon; Mesdames Sybil Reynolds, Grace Williams, and Elizabeth Anderson, staff at Belvedere; Mrs. Helen Stephens, Misses Patricia Mc Callum and Harriet Fletcher, staff members at Tiburon; Mesdames Dale Sims, Jean Jacobsen and Eleanor Daggett, auxiliary teachers.

A new playground for the Belvedere Nursery School was completed last week as the first phase of an expansion plan.

We cordially invite you to an exhibition of paintings by

LADA HLAVKA

LADA HLAVKA was born in Prague in 1899. He started to paint at the early age of six, and later he studied in Prague at the Charles IV University and at the Academie des Beaux Arts. From 1923 to 1939 he was engaged as a professor at the Art Institute of Prague. During this period he had several exhibitions of his paintings there.

In 1939, Mr. Hlavka came to the United States, having been sent by his country to decorate the Czechoslovakian pavilion at the Worlds Fair of 1939.

He was tremendously impressed with what he saw and he conceived the idea to go around the United States looking at this country and painting its many aspects for a series of pictures which he would call "MY COUNTRY."

In addition to his being recognized and well paid as an artist in Europe he has also been a successful artist in this country whose work has been shown at the Carnegie Institute and the Palace of the Legion of Honor. We are pleased to have Mr. Hlavka at our salon.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR JOSEPH FREESE
(Heritage Photo)

Newlyweds To Reside In Fairfax

St. Anselm's Church in Ross was the setting for the wedding on Sept. 4 of Marcelle Tougeron of San Anselmo and Arthur Joseph Freese of Hamilton Air Force Base with the Rev. Thomas J. Riley officiating.

Marcelle wore a white full length gown of Chantilly lace for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony in which she was escorted to the altar by her father. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anselme Tougeron of San Anselmo.

Mrs. Robert C. Worden of San Rafael wore a full length gown of blue silk as matron of honor for her sister and her husband acted as best man. Ushering were Michael L. Harman of Hamilton Air Force Base and Robert C. St. Clair of Novato.

Following the ceremony a garden reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Marcelle was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is employed with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in San Francisco. She is the sister of Raymond Tougeron of San Anselmo.

The bridegroom, the son of Mr. Emma Freese of Long Beach, attended schools in Carroll, Ia., and is stationed with U.S. Air Force at Hamilton. He is the brother of Mrs. Bernice Heistercamp, Mrs. Alice Heistercamp and Mrs. Ruth Cilert, all of Iowa, and Frederick Freese of Chula Vista.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Los Angeles

Yachting Group Will Present Fashion Show

A "Fashion Fiesta," featuring cruise clothes from Puerta Vallarta will be the highlight of the luncheon which members of the Women's Auxiliary of the San Francisco Yacht Club are planning Sept. 22 at the Belvedere clubhouse.

Mrs. Robert Boat, of Paradise Cove, is chairman. Her committee includes Mrs. Earl W. Peak, Mill Valley, Mrs. Don Arntz, Tiburon; invitations; Mrs. Mark Noble, Belvedere, decorations; Mrs. Robert Bernheim, Belvedere, models. Ronn Mann is commentator.

Mesdames Bernheim, Allen B. Mitchell, Thomas Elliot, J. Paul Silvestri Jr., and Howard Mc Gill Jr. will model.

Dance School Plans Recital

Students of the Raymond School of Dance in Novato will be presented in a dance recital and fashion show at the Officers Club at Hamilton Air Force Base at 1:30 p.m. Sunday.

The dance numbers will include ballet, acrobatic, tap and modern jazz routines. Students participating are Carla Christa and Charlie Fredrick, Vicki Craig, Virginia Tyra, Julie and Laurie Kiefer, Lisa Miltenberger, Kathleen Hansell, Lisa Fernandes, Karen Spagnolia, Joyce Thomson, Mary Lipinski, Lori Sides, Alexandra Neale, Kim Thomson, Kelly Ground, Beth Hammond, Nancy George, Lori Martin and Franca Hernandez. Featured dancer will be Bonnie Swan.

Sleek New Shaping

Prominent in the fall footwear parade are leather pumps sheared to sleek new shaping. Low back and sides, and foreshortened vamp are part of this silhouette. Weightless leather linings provide pumps with a smooth inner surface to protect against discomfort and stocking snags.

Gardening Program

Gordon Baker Lloyd will present a program on gardening tomorrow at 10 a.m., for the San Rafael Improvement Club. Mrs. Claude Besselieu, chairman of the garden section, will greet members and guests.

Opening Wilderness Areas Step In Right Direction

This coming Saturday (Sept. 18) will mark a new era in cooperation between the lumber industry and North Coast landowners on the one hand and the conservationists and public on the other.

For the first time, vast privately owned wilderness areas in the Redwood Empire are being opened up for public recreation such as hunting, fishing, trail riding and picnicking.

Several large lumber companies got together and came up with the Redwood Park and Recreation Plan, which opens to the public some 230,000 acres of forest land between Crescent City and the Navarro River near Ukiah.

The newly opened area, from Mendocino County to Del Norte, includes some of the finest deer hunting and fishing areas.

In addition, the industry proposes that some 8,000 acres of redwood groves now held by private owners be added to the state parks.

Through this gesture, the lumber industry wants to show that private industry is not indifferent to the interests of conservation and recreation; that private industry can exist side by side with conservation and recreation.

Those of us who take advantage of this gesture of goodwill from the lumber interests and landowners would do well to reciprocate by common sense rules of safety and good manners.

We hope hunters and campers will not forget their usual safety precautions in the use of firearms and fires, and that picnickers will not abuse the privilege by littering the forest land.

The concept of opening private lands for public use, while novel in northern coastal California, is nothing new in states like Oregon and Washington.

In those two states to the north, public recreation on private lands has been in existence for some 40 years. The practice has advanced to the point where many private recreation spots are equipped with picnic tables and sanitary facilities for public use, much the same as our public parks and beaches.

California has a long way to go in this respect. But we're finally headed in the right direction.

LEARNING MAKES A GOOD INVESTMENT

A college education usually pays for itself in about ten years. This is the estimate of Dr. Gary Becker, a Columbia University professor, in his book, "Human Capital."

For every $1,000 spent in college, according to the author, the average student increases his earning power more than $100 a year. He also estimates that the national economy gains $2,000 a year for every $20,000 invested in the average four-year college education.

"By and large, it appears, ability explains only a relatively small part of the difference," he reports, "and a college education explains the larger part."

College enrollments, now numbering over five million students, are expected to double by 1980.

But the growth will benefit everybody only to the extent that millions of persons like you give your personal, moral and economic support to the cause of education on all levels. God will bless you if you do.

"That men may appreciate wisdom and discipline, may understand words of intelligence." (Proverbs 1:2)

Instill in me, O Holy Spirit, a respect for sound learning and a desire to promote it.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Calling Back The Legislature May Be An Iceberg Situation

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — There may be more than meets the eye in Gov. Edmund G. Brown's decision to call a special session of the state legislature next Monday, thereby disrupting the vacations of many legislators, and causing plenty of moaning and groaning over the state as a whole.

Primarily, the session has to do with reapportionment of the state. The state supreme court acted on a number of suits, ordered reapportionment last December, and announced that if it was not accomplished the court would put forth a plan of its own.

THE COURT PLAN involves running of both senators and assemblymen "at - large." In other words, if a district comprised more than two counties, or had to elect more than one assemblyman or senator, they might be required to run on the basis of the high men for the ticket.

This procedure would go into effect for the June, 1966, primaries, and could involve some bitter fights between party members themselves. Then too, there is the possibility the Republicans might make some major gains on an "at-large" election following the primaries.

THIS IS A speculative assumption, but the indications are "at-large" would be more favorable to the minority group than would a straight district election, for the simple reason more emphasis would be laid on the candidate than on the party.

Another reason for an early disposal of the reapportionment crisis is the fact it would give more time for decisions as to who is going to seek what office. Should the problem be cleared rapidly, these decisions could be made earlier, thus giving candidates another month or so in which to conduct campaigns. The extra time is necessary for the Democrats, the party which is losing ground now.

Virtually no politicians want an "at-large" election. Neither do the elected representatives want to see their own seats endangered through a redistricting that would allow strong candidates to campaign against them. This is understandable, for one of the objects of politics is to "stay in."

CONSEQUENTLY, although the early call has disrupted a few personal plans, Governor Brown may be doing the Democratic Party a favor after all in summoning the legislature.

When a representative is elected to public office, his first duty is to that office, and the politicians will be the first to admit this. So Governor Brown need have no qualms about spoiling vacations and junkets.

OF COURSE, if the legislature cannot agree on a reapportionment plan which divides the state into single districts, it will have to accept the state supreme court's plan.

So there is always the chance that the court could be doing the Republicans a great favor.

This 'Brotherhood' Only For Whites

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The recent Admission Day parade held by the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West reminded me of a fact of which many people may still be ignorant. I refer to the unwritten by-law of the Native Sons organization which bans non-whites (Orientals, Negroes and American Indians) from membership. The fact that many Indian terms are used in the many rituals of that group is especially ironic. If more "substantial" proof of my statements is required, I suggest contacting either Mayor John Shelley of San Francisco or Gov. Edmund Brown, both long-time members of this worthy "brotherhood."

If you see the absurdity in the assumption that never has a yellow, red or black man been born in California, perhaps the next step would be to ask ourselves: "Isn't the polite gentleman's agreement brand of bigotry as practiced in our fair state just as horrible (if not more so) than the clear-cut, brutal variety practiced in Mississippi?"

Why Did Nobody Salute The Flag?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Would just like to compliment the Native Sons and Daughters for the beautiful parade held in San Rafael on Admission Day. It was well planned and whoever was in charge should be congratulated.

My vantage point watching the parade was from a building at Fourth and Lootens, which gave a wonderful view of the coming parade — however, I was appalled by the fact that when the flag of this wonderful country of ours passed in review—the only person to salute the flag was the policeman on duty at the corner.

What are we teaching our children in the schools nowadays—certainly not patriotism, and what are the parents teaching them by their example?

I'm glad I was raised when it was all right to love your country and be willing to obey the laws of the land.

Only Few Involved In Battle Of Bands

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I have just returned from the "Battle of the Bands," at the courthouse square. I must say that I was saddened by the actions of a few childish teen-agers, which resulted in the shortening of a very fine performance.

As a teen-ager, I feel I must apologize for the actions of these immature individuals, because they probably don't have enough responsibility to do so for themselves.

I'm sure some people will be narrow-minded enough to blame all of us for the actions of a few, but I urge these people to look at the band members who worked so hard to put on a good show, which the majority of us were mature enough to enjoy without wrecking it.

Thanks to the Chamber of Commerce, the five bands, Myron King, and the San Rafael Police Department, for staging such a good show. I hope that we will be allowed to have others in the future, and that the irresponsible few who made trouble will either stay home or be grown up enough to curb their babyish bids for attention, at least for a little while.

Low Land Taxes Not Always Good

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The present tax system needs study, especially the practices dealing with land. But the uninformed shouldn't jump off into deep water and start floundering towards an imaginary paradise.

Cuba under Batista had one of the world's lowest land taxes. The land tax in Viet Nam was also very low before her recent troubles. Czarist Russia had an extremely low land tax. In our own land, fertile Mississippi vies for the lowest land tax in the country, and her poverty is a disgrace to the whole nation.

Are the results obtained in these regions with low land taxes the ideals that a strong and prosperous democracy wishes to attain? Equitable taxes are a valid goal. But proposed remedies must be carefully analyzed lest they produce unwanted results.

A tax on production or distribution would be such a remedy. Such levies always result in curtailed production. Therefore all such taxes must be suspect as a remedy for our problems. For a tax that reduces the production of goods shrinks the real wealth of this nation.

Taxes can reduce production, but who wants to claim that taxes reduce land? These problems are too big for extemporaneous reasonings over cups of coffee. They call for planned study.

Packing Materials Giveaway Illegal

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In reference to your article in the Independent-Journal, Sept. 7, 1965, entitled "Moving Made Much Easier by Planning in Advance," we wish to voice our objections to the content of this article and to ask that you publish this letter.

Very frankly, we, as an association, believe that tips to the prospective shipper are of great value only if presented by an expert in the field and if they conform to lawfully published tariffs governing the conduct of moving companies. For example, your article mentions — "contact your moving company since they supply cartons and barrels — some charge for this service." In truth, reputable movers are happy to supply cartons and to charge for this material as we LEGALLY must. Rules governing the conduct of moving companies were established originally by Public Utilities Commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission basically to protect the consumer. The give-away of packing material, which the moving company has originally had to purchase, and which is forbidden by law, is both bad business for the company and not in the best interest of the shipper, since he or she becomes a party to the violation as well, Reputable moving companies are concerned for the needs of the shipper and as reputable carriers charge for services and material as provided by law.

Negro Teachers Being Dropped Because They Aren't Educated

By G. K. HODENFIELD
(James Marlow is on vacation)

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bitterness and heartache are ahead for thousands of Negro pupils and Negro teachers in the South, even if full school integration should proceed without incident.

The harsh fact is that years of segregated, inferior education have left them ill-prepared to cope with the higher standards they will find in previously all-white schools.

Hundreds of Negro teachers already have lost their jobs as a direct result of desegregation. Where there is a surplus of teachers, the Negro usually is first to go.

IN SOME CASES this is outright racial discrimination, and redress may be available through the courts. The federal government is keeping a close watch and is prepared to step in where discrimination can be proved.

The National Education Assn., too, is pledged to fight what it calls "illegal and capricious dismissals, intimidation, and punitive transfers."

BUT IN a tragic number of cases, it isn't discrimination. The Negro teacher just does not measure up.

Dr. Dave Darland of the NEA said recently:

"Their education is traditionally bad. They are victims of inferior elementary schools, inferior secondary schools, and inferior colleges.

"They started behind, they stayed behind, and it would take a superman to catch up."

IN FLORIDA, all teachers must now pass the National Teacher Examination as a requirement for certification. Two hundred Negro teachers have lost their jobs there because of low test scores.

Throughout the South this year, there were special summer institutes for teachers of disadvantaged children. The institutes were sponsored by the U.S. Office of Education.

Within a week after they started, it was apparent that the problem wasn't only disadvantaged children, but disadvantaged teachers as well.

THE DIRECTOR of one such institute, herself a Negro, said in an interview:

"We had 40 Negro teachers here from four Southern states. Some of them had advanced degrees from Negro colleges.

"Only one or two could write a coherent paragraph. The level of spoken English was just as bad.

"It is heart-breaking to think of these teachers going back to the classroom and inflicting their ignorance on hundreds of little children."

And what of those children? The road ahead will be rocky indeed as desegregation spreads.

A Negro youngster entering the 9th grade in a previously all-white school will be at a terrible disadvantage in competition with white classmates who have had eight years of the best education available.

It will be easier, perhaps, for younger children who are integrated at the first and second grade levels.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Guidance Is Sought In Draftee Cases

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — U.S. attorneys are bombarding the Justice Department with requests for "guidance" on what to do about defiant draftees.

From various parts of the country, federal prosecutors are reporting they have reliable information that leftists, anti-Viet Nam student demonstrators, civil rights militants and Negro extremists intend to refuse to be inducted into the armed forces.

On the basis of these reports, there are indications this recalcitrance may be a covert organized movement of nationwide scope. This possibility is under close scrutiny.

THE FIRST challenge may be staged in Detroit.

Federal authorities there have been alerted that certain youths due to respond to a summons for military service will balk at being sworn in.

Attorney Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach has been referring the inquiries to Assistant Atty. Gen. Fred Vinson, head of the criminal division. The son of a late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Vinson was appointed several months ago.

He is notifying the U.S. Attorneys to handle these cases "locally."

SOME PROSECUTORS are baffled by this ambiguous directive. They are complaining it gives them no hint as to the government's policy on handling defiant draftees.

Also unexplained is Katzenbach's apparent passing the buck to Vinson. Congressional authorities are looking into this.

The U.S. attorneys can proceed under two laws, the Selective Service Act or the Sedition Act. One purpose of their inquiries is to obtain Justice Department guidance on this key question.

THE COST OF BREAD is going up regardless of which wheat price support formula is finally adopted by Congress.

Whether it is the version voted by the House that would cost an estimated $1.295 billion, or the Senate's $1.6 billion plan, after all the legislative squabbling and haggling is over, it will be the consumer who will pay in the end.

That's the bluntly forthright opinion of the two top Republican members of the Senate Agriculture Committee, George Aiken from the dairy state of Vermont, and Milton Young from North Dakota, where wheat is king.

"Bread prices are going up regardless of what wheat price support formula is finally agreed on by the House and Senate," says Aiken. "The reason for that is simple. The price of wheat has little bearing on the price of bread. The cost of bread has been steadily rising for years."

Senator Young vigorously echoes this with detailed confirming figures.

THEY SHOW THAT bread prices have climbed steadily in the past 18 years, while in nine of those years the price of wheat fell.

Also cited by Young is that hourly earnings of bakery workers in 1963 were $1.18 higher than in 1947-49, increasing from $1.15 to $2.33 per hour.

Senator Aiken stressed this as one of the underlying reasons for the steady climb of the cost of bread.

ADMINISTRATION insiders are dropping hints that Agriculture Sacretary Orville L. Freeman is the next cabinet member slated to be "kicked upstairs" — to a diplomatic post, a la former Postmaster General John A. Gronouski.

FREEMAN HAS BEEN leading the furious lobby for the administration's widely assailed "bread tax" formula for a boost in the wheat price supports. It got nowhere in the House, and even less consideration in the Senate. Privately, Freeman has been wanting out for some time.

The one-time Minnesota governor has told close friends he would like to embark on a diplomatic career. It looks as if President Johnson will give him the chance.

New Unified School District Trustees Are Learning Much

FOR SEVERAL years we have covered meetings of the San Jose School District board and the Novato Unified School District board. Then with the unification of the districts, there was only one board and it was almost equally divided between the members of each former board.

We had followed the San Jose board as it solved the problems of running an elementary district. The board members knew all the ins and outs of their district.

However, we would wager that taking part in running a larger district which includes junior high schools and high schools is a new experience to those three members from the San Jose district.

WE WATCHED as they learned and approved of the possibility of an extended three year junior high school program. We are certain that the board members learned a few things about such a program.

At last week's meeting, it was quite obvious that they were totally unprepared for some of the things that arise in a high school district. It occurred during the awarding of a contract for laundry for towels for the coming school year.

Duane Moeller, who was business manager for the San Jose district, estimated that there would be about 1,300 towels per day. He was quickly corrected by those who were familiar with the towels used in the Novato district. The figure was raised to 3,500 to 5,000 per day.

THE THREE MEMBERS from the old San Jose district could not conceal their utter amazement that a district would use that many towels per day.

We know that they are finding out how much more it costs to put a student through high school than the elementary schools.

OVER THE Labor Day weekend, we went to Yuba City. While there, we visited the Carriage Square Shopping Center. It was complete with many antique wagons and carriages and the architecture of the buildings made it seem much more like a Gold Rush town than even those towns themselves.

The City of Novato has been encouraging the businesses on the east end of Grant Avenue to redecorate their store fronts in an attempt to create an old town where some of the buildings are more than 100 years old.

Those responsible for planning the old town in Novato would do well to visit the Carriage Square in Yuba City, which incidentally contains the county museum, and see what could be added to the old town atmosphere in Novato.

IN THE "it could only happen in Marin" department, we would like to take a page from an edition of the Independent-Journal last week. A large advertiser in San Rafael had a full page "back to school" advertisement.

Among the items listed in the sale were tablets, crayons, notebook paper, lunch kits, skateboards, table lamps, beer, vodka, whiskey, folding beds and toilet seats.

For what school children?

MORRIE RYSKIND

Sore Tooth, Staff Lack Brings Denunciation Of Russell Kirk

Russell Kirk is unquestionably a man of erudition and a writer of note, and I have at times gone out of my way to hear him lecture. But I must now report that, though he may be a scholar, he is not a gentleman. He's a show-off.

There — I said it and I'm glad. If this particular column departs from the wonted restraint readers have learned to expect from my non-violent Socratic inquiry into matters of public concern, I could, I suppose, plead extenuating circumstances.

AT THIS VERY moment I am having an argument with a nagging tooth that thinks my mouth isn't big enough for both of us and is demanding out. To make it worse, it's a wisdom tooth—which will be used to corroborate the loudmouthed whispering campaign that I'm anti-intellectual.

But I think I'd be off Kirk anyhow. I don't like braggarts who flaunt their virtues and thus make it even tougher for me.

You see, this piece was originally intended to be a repeat of one I find it necessary to run annually for the benefit of those new clients who deem me churlish for not acknowledging their notes and so assume I don't even read them.

BUT, AS I have explained once a year or so, I run a one-man shop and couldn't possibly answer them all. Yet rest assured I read every word with interest and thereby get an invaluable cross section of public opinion.

Those gracious enough to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope can usually count on a quick answer provided I have the information they want at hand. But there are also requests for verification of data I have used — and that may take time.

Some readers send manuscripts and ask for my criticism; others ask me to collaborate on books or plays. I am naturally flattered, but where would I get the time?

And I occasionally get offers to speak—usually for free, though at times I have been offered some fairly handsome sums. I'd love to, but I long ago discovered I was terrible in front of a crowd—and when it comes to my talking from a dais, three's a crowd. And that was about the number who were left, too, the one time I essayed it: my wife, myself and the chairman of the organization.

ABOUT REQUESTS TO REPRINT: These should go to the Los Angeles Times Syndicate, Los Angeles, Calif. 90053. That is the power structure holding the copyright.

Well, that's about what I was going to say—when along came Kirk. In a recent column he spoke about "his staff." It seems they open his letters, discard the crank (i.e., unfavorable) mail and then see to it that every note is acknowledged, either by the boss or themselves.

If that isn't a vulgar example of what has been so accurately termed "the unconscious insolence of conscious opulence," what is? It was precisely this sort of disgusting display that led to the French Revolution.

Still, it's his life, and I would normally not protest. But a dozen sent me that column together with angry phrases like, "If Kirk can answer his mail, why can't you?"

Well, the answer is simple. Kirk has a staff, and I have just me. He is a "have" and I'm a "have-not." And does he care? Has he once, in all the time I've known him, offered me his staff to help out? You know the answer.

It is true my wife has volunteered to open the mail for me, but there is the ever-present danger of time bombs, which Kirk cowardly avoids by passing the risk on to his wage-slaves. And, in addition, some of the letters are obviously from university students who participated in the Free Speech Movement and delight in using all the four-letter words they know in writing to me. My wife has one college degree, and I don't think it necessary for her to take a post-graduate course.

So you're welcome to Mr. Kirk. And, as soon as the dentist is through with that wisdom tooth, you can have that, too. From now on, I intend to get along without either of them.

Eastern College For Marin Girls

Four Marin students are scheduled to attend Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., this year: two freshmen and two sophomores.

Returning as sophomores will be Barbara Norwood Breeze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Breeze, 28 Country Club Drive, Mill Valley, and Victoria Jane Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Johnson, 47 Upper North Terrace, Tiburon.

Entering as freshmen will be Cathleen Tremaine Goodwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Goodwin, 428 Montecilla Road, San Rafael, and Judith Anne Doyle, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy G. Tawns, Stinson Beach.

Variance Requests On Planner Agenda

Larkspur planning commissioners, meeting in city hall at 8 p.m. today, will hold three public hearings on variance requests by homeowners and then adjourn to a work session Sept. 28 at 8 p.m., when they will consider the Larkspur general plan.

The variance requests, for setback reductions, are all from people owning land on steep slopes.

Juvenile Court May Get Trial

Trial of Henry Rodney Krieger, 20, on a charge of posession of marijuana may be held in juvenile court, in spite of the fact the Marin County Probation Office has recommended that Krieger be handled as an adult.

At the request of defense attorney Hadden W. Roth, Municipal Court Judge Peter Allen Smith yesterday referred the case of Krieger, of 148 Sycamore Avenue, Mill Valley, to juvenile court, although he said the juvenile judge might not accept the case.

Krieger was one of those arrested in the major marijuana raids in southern Marin in June.

Two Marinites Complete Training

John F. Broadhead Jr., Navy airman apprentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Broadhead of 304 C Street, San Rafael, and Clark Davis, seaman apprentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Davis of 210 Mission Avenue, San Rafael, have completed recruit training at Great Lakes Naval Training Center.

Both are home on leave. Broadhead will report to the Naval Air Technical Training Center at Memphis, Tenn., for schooling in aviation mechanics; Davis to the Coos Head Naval Facility in Empire, Ore., for duty as a fire control striker.

New Street Seal Before Council

The Novato City Council will award a contract for slurry seal on city streets when it meets at 8 p.m. today in the Novato community house.

This type of seal has been recommended by Lawrence A. Coleman, director of public works. It will be used on Grant Avenue and some other streets before winter rains set in.

Other items to come before the council include accepting Industrial Way Project No. 3 as completed, a report on the cost of operating the swimming pool, and a report on the employee retirement system.

Two Marin Youths Enlist In Navy

George M. Dobson, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin A. Dobson of 2 Olive Avenue, San Anselmo, and Charles R. Miles, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Miles of 566 Heather Way, San Rafael, have enlisted in the Navy.

Both young men will receive recruit training at the Naval Training Center in San Diego.

Duo Piano Recital Set At Dominican College

First of four programs of the Dominican College college concert artist series will feature Sister Mary Dominic, O.P. and Elinor Armer in a duo piano recital next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Angelico Hall on the San Rafael campus.

Sister Mary Dominic, assistant professor of music at the college, has appeared in numerous solo and duo piano recitals. She recently was made chairman of American music of the Northern California State Federation of Music Clubs.

Miss Armer, a graduate of Mills College, is a member of the Katharine Branson school music faculty in Ross.

The program on Sept. 21 will include "Five Pieces From Mikrosmos," Bartok; "Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring," Bach; variations on a Theme by Haydn, Brahms; "Kaleidoscope," Goosens; Richard Strauss waltzes from "Der Rosenkavalier," and Debussy-Ravel "Festivals."

Senator Sees More Woes For Dominican

WASHINGTON (UPI) -- Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., says that despite the recent settlement in the Dominican Republic revolt, democracy there "is a promise which remains to be fulfilled."

Mansfield warned yesterday that the new government under Hector Garcia Godoy "is not an end-all for the troubles which have long plagued that unfortunate nation." He said that Garcia "faces a monumental task."

British Miners To Halt Cussing?

LONDON (AP)—Britain's coal miners have been advised to brush up the industry's image by watching their language.

Last April, 30,000 men were idled by a strike that resulted from a foreman swearing at a young miner, reported Prof. J. Glyn Picton.

There was no justification for the strike, which cost Britain 400,000 tons in coal production, he said.

Picton said he was surprised at an argument used to defend the foreman, that mining was a tough business and swearing commonplace.

Cluster Homes On Agenda Of Mill Valley Planners

Mill Valley planning commissioners will hear a request for a proposed "cluster type" development to be built on 22 acres of land on a hill side in West Blithedale Canyon at an 8 p.m. meeting today.

Sausalito architect William S. Allen seeks to build the homes, using about nine acres for 15 homes, the remaining 12 acres to be in open area. The land is zoned for one-acre sites.

A motion to disapprove the development failed before the commission at its last meeting and the commission continued the subject to hold a field trip.

Turkish Tribesmen Kill In Land Dispute

ISTANBUL, Turkey (UPI)—Five persons were killed and 15 others wounded in a clash between Kurdish tribesmen and villagers in the southeast Turkish town of Sirnakli, reports reaching here said today.

The dispute involved land ownership. Police broke up the fighting.

Brown To Speak At Empire Dinner

Gov. Edmund G. Brown will speak at the closing banquet of the Redwood Empire Ass.'s 45th annual Convention Sept. 24, in Santa Rosa.

Brown will report on his observations made during a tour of the Redwood Empire two weeks ago.

The banquet session will climax three days of business and social events, featured by panels and presentations from government and community leaders from San Francisco to Grants Pass, Ore.

The public is invited to participate in all convention programs, J. Dwight O'Neil, association president said.

Johnson Again Calls For Spending Caution

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson, in a renewed effort to hold down government costs, has told his cabinet members "we can all make do with a little bit less if we try."

Johnson told the agency heads in a statement that he wanted them to concentrate their attention on a "relentless" campaign to weed out marginal programs, to hold down federal employment, and to reduce travel costs of government employees.

Conflict Is Found In Tiburon Contract

A conflict between state law and a recently renewed city-county contract with Tiburon has been brought to light by Marin County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell.

At odds with the state code is the county's new contract with the city of Tiburon, which sets out how Tiburon will pay the county services such as police protection.

The contract, which was approved by County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney, before adopted by the board of supervisors, also sets out distribution of fees. It says that Tiburon is to get all of the vehicle code violation fees and other fees collected by municipal court for infractions within the city.

The state penal code says, however, that 16 per cent of the fines collected must go to the county to help defray court costs.

The division of court fines between city and county has long been under contention, mainly because the formula varies from city to city.

In 1953 when legislation closed the old justice courts in favor of municipal courts, a formula of fee division was set up on estimates of what each city had been contributing in support of its justice court.

Cities,in corporated after the 1953 legislation have been paying 16 per cent of court fines to the county. In Marin, these are Tiburon, Novato and Belvedere.

Corte Madera, however, pays only 12 per cent, Mill Valley and San Rafael pay 13 per cent and San Anselmo only 11 per cent. On the other end of the scale, Ross pays 18 per cent, Sausalito 21 per cent, and Fairfax and Larkspur 30 per cent.

Mitchell said he will ask for legal direction on the conflict between the Tiburon contract and the state law. He said he will also recommend to the board of supervisors that the inequities of the fine division problem be turned over to the city-county committee on urban service for study.

Enrollment Review Due

Reed School District trustees, meeting at 8 p.m. today at Del Mar School, will review enrollment by school, grade level, and classroom.

Supt. Edward C. Pino reports enrollment as of last Friday was 1,707.

Also on the agenda is discussion of updating the "1958 Objectives Report" under which most of the current curriculum was developed.

Seal Beach in Orange County has the world's longest fishing pier.

Semanticist To Speak At College PR Conclave

Dr. William H. Pemberton, Mill Valley psychologist and semanticist, will be among speakers at the Sept. 25 session of "Adventures in Communication," a conference in public relations at the College of Marin gymnasium.

The conference, which opens Saturday, will continue on Sept. 25 and Oct. 2.

Dr. Pemberton will discuss semantics at 1:30 p.m. Sept. 25 and will summarize the three-day conference at 2 p.m. Oct. 2.

Other speakers scheduled for the afternoon session on Sept. 25 are Leslie B. Heath of Lesselli Marionettes, who will discuss communicating through theater entertainment; Clinton DeLap, director of the Marin Visitor's Bureau, and Mrs. Marian Kelley, executive director of the Marin Volunteer Bureau.

Ancient Egyptians used cosmetics.

Cancer Society To Hear Raney

Dr. Gus A. Raney, chief of the radiation therapy department of Marin General Hospital, will address the annual meeting of directors of the Marin County Branch of the American Cancer Society Thursday evening. New officers will be installed at the meeting.

The meeting, at the Meadow Club in Fairfax, will begin at 7 p.m. Marin Cancer Society volunteers during the past year may attend by making reservations through the Cancer Society office in San Rafael.

BAKED HAM AND YAMS
1 Jolly ham
Whole cloves
½ cup cider vinegar
⅔ cup dark corn syrup
⅛ tsp salt
6 yams

Wipe ham with damp paper towels. Insert cloves evenly into surface of ham. Now place ham in large Dutch oven. Combine vinegar, corn syrup, salt and 2 cups water; pour over ham. Bring to boil. Cover and bake in 325° oven for 2 hours, basting ham frequently and turning it occasionally. Add pared and cut yams, cover and continue cooking until yams are done—about 30 minutes. Remove ham. Slice, and arrange on serving platter. Place the yams around ham and keep warm until serving. Serve with Mustard Sauce: Melt 1½ tbs butter in small saucepan, remove from heat and set aside to cool. In small bowl, with rotary beater, beat 1 egg, ⅓ cup light brown sugar, firmly packed, ¼ cup granulated sugar, ¼ cup prepared mustard, ¼ tsp salt and ⅛ tsp pepper until well combined. Beat in ¾ cup cider vinegar. Stir mixture into cooled butter; mix well. Over medium heat, bring to boiling, stirring. Reduce heat; simmer 3 minutes. Serve hot along with Baked Hams and Yams... Remember this sauce for Corned Beef and Cabbage and old-fashioned New England Boiled Dinners.

Today is Tuesday, Sept. 14, the 257th day of 1965 with 108 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last quarter. The morning stars are Jupiter and Saturn. The evening stars are Venus, Mars, and Saturn.

American physicist - educator Karl Compton was born on this day in 1887.

On this day in history:

In 1778, Benjamin Franklin was sent to France with instructions to negotiate a treaty to end the American Revolutionary War.

In 1847, the U.S. Army occupied Mexico City.

In 1901, President William McKinley died from wounds received days earlier at the hands of an assassin.

In 1963, the first quintuplets in U.S. history to survive infancy were born in Aberdeen, S.D., to Mrs. Andrew Fischer.

A Thought For The Day — French author Alexandre Dumas said: "All human wisdom is summed up in two words . . . wait and hope."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Sacrifice Trump Trick To Prevent Two Ruffs

If you open the bidding with one of a suit and your partner responds in one of a higher suit, his response is forcing for one round.

Bridge players sometimes simplify this principle by saying a "one-over-one-bid is forcing," but this does not apply to all one-over-one bids.

Opening lead — ♠ Q

In the hand shown today, taken from the recent national pair championship, North's response of one heart was forcing for one round.

NOT FORCING

South's rebid of one spade was not forcing; he could have jumped to two spades if his hand were good enough. North could safely pass the rebid of one spade (especially since he had a very doubtful response to one club).

West began a good defense by leading the queen of spades, but didn't have the courage to continue the defense.

South won the first trick with the king of spades and led the queen of hearts to force out the ace.

LOW CLUB

East returned a low club, which rode to dummy's 10, and declarer ducked a diamond to West's jack.

Now West's best defense is to return the jack of spades. This gives up one trump trick but prevents two ruffs.

West weakly shifted back to clubs, and East took the ace and led a third club for West to ruff. There was still time for the jack of trumps, but West returned the king of diamonds to South's ace.

SOUTH RUFFS

Now South ruffed a diamond with the eight of trumps, discarded the king of clubs on the king of hearts, ruffed a heart, and led the last diamond.

West could not shut out dummy's 10 of spades, and South made an overtrick.

The result was not earthshaking, one overtrick at a one-bid, but it is of such stuff that tournament championships are made.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one club, you bid one heart, and partner now bids one spade.

It is up to you again, holding:

♠ 3
♥ A J 9 5 4
♦ Q 9 5 4
♣ A 8 3

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two diamonds.

This gives partner a chance to show heart support if he can. If he bids two notrump, you will raise to three.

MULTIPLE LISTING SERVES YOU BEST!

WHEN SELLING PROPERTY BECAUSE

1. You list your property with the Realtor of your choice.
2. Through Multiple Listing over 994 experienced real estate salesmen offer your property for sale to their prospective buyers.
3. Your property is shown at your convenience and by appointment only, if you desire. Your Realtor saves you the annoyance of dealing with many different people. He sifts the "wheat from the chaff," weeds out the mere "lookers." Yet with all this convenience you still have several hundred salesmen working on the sale of your property!
4. You are given, without charge, helpful suggestions on ways and means of increasing your property's saleability and how and when the property should be shown to best advantage.
5. Without charge your property is photographed to its best advantage.
6. Through Multiple Listing your property will sell faster and easier because it is listed with descriptions and photographs in all 223 member - offices — reaching most prospective buyers in a wider area.

Flautt Home On Tap In San Anselmo

The San Anselmo City Council will likely vote tonight to legalize the out-of-town residence of City Administrator Douglas J. Flautt.

At their Aug. 24 meeting councilmen split 2-2 on a vote to delete the residence requirement fom the city administrator ordinance. Councilman John M. Reichmuth, who has spoken in favor of the amendment, was absent.

Flautt has resided in San Rafael since about six months after he went to work for San Anselmo in 1960.

Also scheduled for tonight's meeting is an appearance by Wilfred De Cook, whose Spalding Avenue home on Red Hill was undermined by an earth slide.

Flautt said earth slid out from beneath the De Cook home foundation. De Cook has been asked to appear before the council to show cause why he should not be ordered to remove his home.

Pump Repairs Set

Alto Sanitary District directors last night approved plans for repairing the Alto left station in cooperation with the City of Mill Valley. Bids are to be sought soon and a contract awarded, according to Carl O. Heynen Jr., commissioner.

Three-quarters of rural roads in the United States are surfaced.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Modern General Hospital Should Come Up To Date

VAN DELLEN

Are most modern hospitals obsolete? Yes, in my opinion, and with due respect to the 763 hospitals constructed during the post-war years. With few exceptions, they follow the same old basic pattern. Everyone gets full hospital care regardless of need. It is expensive, considering that most hospitals have more skilled employees than beds for patients. The main stumbling blocks to these programs stem from hospital insurance groups and government rules, regulations, or codes.

THE MODERN general hospital should be geared to meet the health needs of the community in an efficient and economical way. Intensive care units are used to treat individuals with serious ailments, such as heart attacks, strokes, pneumonia, or cancer. Similar sections are reserved for those recovering from surgery, fractures, accidents, or obstetrical procedures. These sick patients are helpless and need skilled nursing care. Most hospitals are designed and built to take care of this group.

But the need for this intensive and expensive care ends when recovery begins and the individual is up and about, regaining strength. They should be moved to a less expensive space where they can use bathroom facilities and eat in a cafeteria or dining room. The food is hotter and there is more social activity. The need for nursing care is reduced and the convalescent is not forced to share a room with a very sick patient.

SPECIAL UNITS also should be available for those undergoing diagnostic examinations. Many are ambulatory and do not need "the full treatment." Room for rehabilitation should be available. The more these individuals help themselves the sooner they can return to a normal life.

Some institutions are extending their services into the home. The patient's daily needs are met by frequent visits from a physician and nurse who work closely with the hospital.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics by mail if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

SUIT OF ARMOR

Mrs. C. writes: I've had spinal arthritis for years. The surgical corset disturbs and upsets me physically, and hampers walking. Can you suggest something else?

REPLY

Yes, an operation may solve your problem if backache has plagued you for years and the usual remedies have been unsuccessful. Leaflet on home aids in arthritis will be sent by mail if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

MOTHER-TO-BE

A reader writes: Can a pregnant woman exercise?

REPLY

Yes, but physical activity should be curtailed in the latter weeks of pregnancy. There is no harm in walking, swimming, and golfing during the first six months; avoid tennis, bicycling and horseback riding.

ORGANS INVOLVED IN DIABETES

A reader writes: What organs of the body are affected by diabetes?

REPLY

The pancreas and liver. The blood vessels are involved most often as a complication of diabetes.

BLOOD BUILDERS

B. T. writes: What food and beverages will increase the blood supply?

REPLY

Foods high in iron and vitamins are most helpful. The list includes meat, dairy products, cereals, and vegetables.

THROAT CANCER

H. G. writes: Would persistent sore throat indicate cancer?

REPLY

Persistent and progressive hoarseness is the most common symptom of cancer of the larynx.

CORNEAL LENSES

R. K. writes: I am interested in getting contact lenses, but the recent controversy over their safety has me confused. What is your opinion?

REPLY

They are safe provided the wearer follows directions and certain precautions.

POROUS BONES

Mrs. B. writes: What are the symptoms of osteoporosis in a woman of 61?

REPLY

In this condition, the bones soften. Pain in the back is the most common complaint. Others develop weakness, loss of appetite, and thinning of the skin. The most frequent complications are bone fractures and kidney stones.

By DAVID ROBERTSON

Dr. Richard S. Hahn's private Peace Corps is growing but the Belvedere surgeon wants it to grow faster.

He plans to ask the U.S. Agency for International Development to give his non-profit foundation, Alliance for Health, some foreign aid.

Dr. Hahn recently returned from Zacapu, Mexico, where he and two other Marin doctors, pediatrician Catherine Pike of Ross and skin specialist Michael J. Franzblau of Terra Linda, tested more than 5,000 school children for tuberculosis and vaccinated them against whooping cough, tetanus and diptheria.

Their mission grew out of an effort begun the previous summer by Dr. Hahn and his family when they went to Apaseo El Grande, a smaller Mexican town, and set up a tuberculosis skin test clinic but ran out of supplies after 1,700 tests.

"We want a grant of foreign aid money to do this kind of work on an expanded scale, combining private initiative with federal assistance," Dr. Hahn said.

He said he will write to California senators and Rep. Donald H. Clausen, First District congressman, seeking their support, then will write to AID. He said he has no idea how much to ask for or even whether it is possible to get AID money for such an undertaking.

"Our experience has shown us that a great deal can be done with small funds and a small group of dedicated people," he said.

"And with the technique we used the recipients participate more. We didn't go down there, give them the stuff and tell them: 'Do it, and we'll come back later and see how you've done.' I think they resent this.

"Our way is more subtle, more personal, and less likely to be received as charity, I believe."

The three Marin doctors spent two weeks in Zacapu, a fast-growing city of about 30,000 which is about 130 miles south of Guadalajara.

For the first week they undertook a massive publicity campaign, using the local newspaper and radio, handbills, sound trucks, films shown in schools and hall, and announcements from the Zacapu church pulpits. They distributed more than 10,000 pieces of literature and had the support of Zacapu city president Luis Salceda Heredia and health officer Dr. Godofredo Ortiz Hernandez in drumming up attendance.

The next week, when they took their equipment to Zacapu's 11 primary schools, they were swamped.

"We had invited pre-school kids to come for the tests too, but we had to give that up when 300 of them turned up the first day. At that rate we would have run out of supplies," said Dr. Hahn.

He said the Zacapu authorities have promised to carry on the work, giving further tests and treatment to tuberculosis victims found as a result of the project.

In addition 5,000 children will be given the BCG vaccination against tuberculosis. Authorities have also promised to give the second and third shots of the triple vaccine for whooping cough, tetanus and diptheria.

"I had hoped this much would be accomplished but I didn't really expect it," said Dr. Hahn. "They probably wouldn't have done this much for another five years if it weren't for the project."

"We were able to show the people of this community how they could mobilize their own health services," agreed Dr. Franzblau. "We not only got their cooperation but their participation as well.

"I was amazed at our acceptance. An hour and a half after we got there everybody in town knew who we were and what we planned to do. Before we left they put on a testimonial dinner for us, with many speeches and many toasts in tequila."

Zacapu was chosen because the doctors had been asked to go there by Dr. Hernandez and by Sister Therese, a Roman Catholic nun who operates the city's only free clinic.

The doctors heaped praise upon Sister Therese, who is trying to raise $500 to $750 to buy some land adjoining her clinic so that a hospital may be built.

"There is a hospital," said Dr. Franzblau, "but it is a six-bed building used for emergencies. There is no room for long-term patients such as tuberculosis victims."

Dr. Hahn said results of the tests his group made showed a very high incidence of tuberculosis in Zacapu.

"Nearly 10 per cent of the skin tests were positive. This is 10 times the incidence in this country."

Dr. Hahn said the Alliance for Health is accepting contributions for Sister Therese's land purchase fund, at 599 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Greenbrae. It also has a $2,000 deficit of its own.

AWAITING TREATMENT—Children mill around schoolhouse in Zacapu, Mexico, waiting their turn for free tuberculosis skin tests and triple vaccine for whooping cough, tetanus and diphtheria. Treatment was given at special summer clinic set up by three Marin doctors: surgeon Richard S. Hahn, skin specialist Michael J. Franzblau, and pediatrician Catherine Pike.

World Faces Shortage Of Water, Animals

By ARTHUR SCHOLES
Worldwide Press Service

HOBART, Tasmania, Australia—The supportable population on earth may be smaller than most calculators believe; namely, some 7.5 billion people, or two-and-one-half times the present world population.

That is the pessimistic view of Prof. J. R. McMillan, dean of Agriculture at Sydney University, presented here to the recent biennial Congress of the Australian and New Zealand Assn. for the Advancement of Science (ANZAAS).

Other specialists have theorized that the earth might support three to 30 times its present load. The reason for Professor McMillan's pessimism is the limitations he sees in the animal population required to feed as many as 7.5 billion people. Such an animal population couldn't be created, says McMillan.

Therefore, even to feed as many as 7.5 billion persons would require a considerable shift from meat to the use of vegetable proteins — hopefully from the leaves of plants requiring little water. For water is the other bar to population expansion, as McMillan sees it.

Something like 100 billion tons of rain falls on earth outside the arctic regions, the ANZAAS Congress was told. But only a small portion of this is (yet) mobilized for food production.

Even with improved techniques for saving rainfall for agriculture, rival claims for the water would limit the increase in food and fodder crops.

For example, it takes 1,000 tons of water to produce a man's woolen suit.

One pound of meat on a dinner table has used up 50 tons of water. Professor McMillan notes that 80 per cent of the water use required by the present Australian diet goes toward the meat component.

This leads the agriculture specialist to the conclusion that Australia—one of the many countries curently facing a water shortage—must be among the first to shift to a more vegetarian diet.

Furthermore, this diet must come from plants of low water consumption.

On a theoretical basis, if all rainfall were used for food of this type, a world population of 30 billion could be fed. However, in practice, 25 per cent of rainfall usage for food would be high; thus the professor concludes that a world population of 7.5 billion is the limit.

At present population growth rates, the world figure is likely to be six billion by the year 2,000, and would reach the professor's limit by the end of the next century.

McMillan himself gives the world only 50 years before reaching his population limit.

Fairfax Orders Job On Drain Culvert

A contract for the construction of a storm drainage culvert on Marinda Drive in Fairfax was awarded last night to Ghilotti Brothers of San Rafael at $29,894.70, lowest of five bids on the project.

Ghilotti's bid was $5,300 above the cost estimated by City Engineer Richard Nelson. The council decided to approve immediate start on the project although it means taking $9,895 from the general fund reserve.

LAW IN ACTION

From the State Bar Of California

'Due Process' Requires Trial

"Due process" requires a trial to be fair and the judge and jury to be free from bias or undue influence. It seeks to have the case decided solely on the evidence offered in court, and not on outside factors.

Thus in a recent case, Tom Piper was on trial for murder. The main witnesses against him were deputy sheriffs who had investigated the case. After the jurors had been selected and for the next three days, the two deputy sheriffs mixed freely with them. They ate and talked with them, and sometimes did them small favors. True, they did not talk to the jurors about the case itself.

Convicted, Tom appealed. He said that his trial was unfair because of the deputys' undue influence. The U.S. Supreme Court reversed the conviction and sent the case back for retrial. It said: "The requirement that a jury's verdict must rest upon the evidence developed at the trial goes to the fundamental integrity of all that is embraced in the constitutional concept of trial by jury . . . exercise of calm and informed judgment by its members is essential to proper enforcement of law."

Mistrials have been ordered in other cases when the jurors try to do some detective work on their own, and go beyond the trial record.

Courts have held it to be a denial of due process if a mob dominates the jury or outside groups threaten it.

Before it is selected, each side has a chance to question the jury, "voir dire," as it is called, "to speak the truth." Each lawyer may ask a venireman if he has any preconceived views of the case, or any prejudices against any of the parties or their lawyers. The aim of a "voir dire" examination to find out if the juror can fairly decide the case on the evidence alone.

At times, it may be hard to show actual bias or the judge may not be convinced there is good cause to remove the juror. In that case each side has some "peremptory" challenges to remove the juror without giving a reason: six, in a civil case; 10, in a criminal case, and 20 in a capital case where a death penalty is possible.

Similarly one side can ask that a judge not preside over a case by claiming that he may be partial. Otherwise, the parties must prove him prejudiced. As a rule, judges disqualify themselves when in good faith a litigant believes them not to be impartial.

Mill Valley Man Held On Forgery Warrant

Russell John Mancebo, 23, of La Verne Avenue, Mill Valley, was arrested by Mill Valley police last night on a warrant from the San Mateo County sheriff's office charging forgery.

Mancebo, also known as Russell John Bitters, was placed in jail, then released on $276 bail. He is to enter plea in San Mateo County Sept. 27.

Britain's Skin Divers Prowling Coast Waters For Lost Treasures

By JOSEPH GLADSTONE
Worldwide Press Service

LONDON (WPS)—Hunting for buried treasure has always been as exciting a hobby for the British as for other people. But the British Isles, heavily built up and intensely cultivated, offer little scope to the treasure seeker of the land-based variety.

However, the development and growing popularity of skin diving as a sport has opened up a whole new region—the shallow seas around the coasts of Britain, considered to be among the richest fields of buried treasure in the world. While there is no accurate estimate of the value of treasure lying in these coastal waters, it is believed to run into hundreds of millions, in the form of solid gold.

Small wonder that sports-goods manufacturers and salesmen in Britain report rising interest in skin diving. An efficient, self-contained, underwater breathing apparatus costs the equivalent of $200 here, but even more advanced equipment is selling well.

The treasure hoards buried beneath the sea around Britain are contained, of course, in the hulls of wrecked ships. The rocky coasts and sundden storms of the British Isles have always made them danger spots for mariners, and hundreds of submerged and rotting hulls lie off the coasts to prove it.

But two major difficulties face the would-be treasure hunters. First, there is very little organized information. Reports about wrecks up to 200 years ago can probably be traced in the back files of local newspapers, and port or harbor records sometimes help. But the only other sourse is local legends — usually exaggerated.

The second problem is that diving in these areas is often tricky. That makes it exciting, of course, but also dangerous.

There are strong tides and currents, shifting sands, deep mud and poor visibility to add to the risks. But none of these difficulties prevent treasure-hunters from trying—particularly now that modern skin-diving equipment is so available to facilitate the sport.

Known wrecks round the British coasts date back more than 800 years. In 1151 A.D., two longships of the Viking raiders from Scandinavia were sunk near the Shetland Islands, their prows reported to be "deeply inlaid with gold."

But the greatest and most legendary source of buried treasure off British coasts is in the remains of the Spanish Armada, that vast invasion fleet which King Philip of Spain sent to conquer England in 1588. The ships carried great quantities of gold to finance the anticipated new government.

But as history has recorded, the ships were defeated by Sir Francis Drake. Scattered and plagued by British storms, many sank.

The most famous of the wrecks is the Duque of Florencia, which sank in Tobermory Bay, off the northern section of the west coast of Scotland. It had nearly $1.5 million worth of treasure on board. Many elaborate expeditions have been organized to find it, but the shifting sand of Scotland's coasts proved too much for them.

Another $1.5 million in treasure lies on the sea bed in Blasket Sound. The flagship of the Andalusian contingent of the Armada sank there, and another ship broke up on the rocks.

In fact, the Irish coast probably conceals more Spanish gold than even the Scottish coast.

Three ships sank in the entrance to Sligo Bay.

There are plenty of wrecks other than the Spanish Armada, of course. In 1650, for instance, when Britain was a republic for a few years under Oliver Cromwell, there was a rebellion in Scotland. General Monk was sent to subdue the rebels, and when the wealthier ones retired northwards to the city of Dundee, they took their moneybags with them. In 1651 Monk captured the town—and loot worth $7 million. He tried to send it back to London by sea, but every one of the fleet of 100 ships carrying it was wrecked in a storm.

A more recent example is the liner Lusitania, sunk by a German submarine off the south coast of Ireland in 1915 with $3 million worth of gold on board.

But skin-diving treasure hunters must remember that every wreck off Britain's coast has a legal owner. Usually it's the British monarch or the original owner, or a private citizen who has bought the wreck from one or the other.

Thus one can't go treasure hunting off Britain's coasts without permission.

The name Hueneme (Wy-nee-me), town in Ventura County, is derived from that of a Cumash Indian village called Wene'me or Wene'mu.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Luci Helps Steve With First Show

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—One of the five new network series that premiered last night was an hour-long variety show that stars Steve Lawrence, whose handlers were wise enough to get Lucille Ball for the opening program guest. This makes it difficult to judge the series' chances because Miss Ball gives a show an exceptional lift. Lawrence's assets are also his liabilities in television. He a city boy through and through, quick and adept and charming with a line, an excellent singer of good pop music, and city-natural and city-nice, and the question is whether they will buy this out where "The Beverly Hillbillies" and "Petticoat Junction" are the cat's meow.

I have my doubts because I remember the unfortunate understanding of the audience that prompted NBC-TV to deswingerize Andy Williams when he started his series—and it worked, and he's still around, and that's fine, but he had to fight his way through gosh-awful corn. The Lawrence show does have a neat sense of gimmicks to keep a generally standard variety show moving most of the time—such as elderly ladies for billboard girls on the premiere. Betty Walker was also funny as an old neighborhood friend of Lawrence. But of course the main asset was Lucy, swinging from a chandelier, riding an elephant, singing, dancing — and hilarious in film clips in a marineland pool with porpoises.

In 20 years the population of the California condor has declined by one-third, from an estimated total of 60 birds to an estimated total of 40.

27 Teachers New In Dixie Schoolrooms

Mary Silveira School—Harvey Murdock, sixth grade, and Louise Soules, second.

Don Timoteo School — John Petsas, second grade.

Strings Workshop Set At School

The workshop for strings will start on Sept. 24 at 4 p.m. in the music room of San Rafael High School, according to Mrs. Ashley E. Stetson, workshop chairman for the sponsoring Symphony Guild of Marin.

Open to pupils in grades 6 through 9 who have had at least two years of experience in playing stringed instruments, it meets on Fridays at 4 p.m. at the high school under the direction of Lucien Mitchell.

Exotic Dancer Sentenced On Narcotic Counts

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Lillian Reis, known in professional dancing circles as Tiger Lil, was free on $5,000 appeal bond today after being convicted on six counts involving narcotics violations.

Judge Jack Turner sentenced the former dancer yesterday to two years on each charge, with the terms to run concurrently.

Miss Reis, 36, mother of two daughters, faces a nonjury trial Friday on charges of illegal possession of drugs.

She also is free on appeal bond for a Pennsylvania conviction involving the theft of about $400,000 from the home of coal baron John B. Rich. Rich said the loss was about $20,000, mostly in jewels, but police placed it at the higher figure.

Council To Discuss Land Encroachments

Sausalito city councilmen will discuss alleged encroachments on city and state-owned land in the vicinity of Curry Lane at a 8 p.m. meeting today in city hall.

The revised disorderly conduct ordinance is to be introduced.

The meeting was advanced one week because City Mgr. Charles A. Brown is to be out of town next Tuesday at a conference.
